Can you drop all the charges?

This is a reasonable approach.

Friends -

Around 4AM today, the Occupy Oakland encampment was brutally raided and taken over by the Oakland Police Department with the support of numerous other police forces from around the Bay Area. While I was out, I personally saw cops from the cities of Newark, Gilroy and San Jose alone.

Eye witnesses report that tear gas and rubber bullets were used on the crowd and to date, approximately 105 individuals who were in and around the camp have been arrested.

Please sign on both as individuals and as members of organizations immediately to demand that Mayor Quan stops the repression of Occupy Oakland. We need her to release everyone who has been arrested, drop the charges and do her job to protect peaceful protest in this city.

Subject: WHY IS OUR MAYOR OUT OF TOWN WHEN DOWNTOWN IS BLOWING UP?????

This email is directed to Mayor Quan and colleagues.

I am not necessarily taking sides on the decision to evict the demonstrators from the Ogawa Plaza....that is a whole different discussion but I will say that it is inarguably horrible to see this kind of political strife in our own city. But, in all of this heartbreaking chaos and violence my real question is: WHERE IS OUR DUMB ASS MAYOR???? I voted for and supported your campaign and now you have completely lost credibility with me and many others by your non-presence at such an important time in our city. Your face and voice has been NOWHERE TO BE SEEN!!! The fact that you are not even in town when the OPD was set to take such decisive action is UNTHINKABLE; Seriously...did you:

1. NOT KNOW WHAT ACTION YOUR POLICE FORCE WAS ABOUT TO TAKE? or,
2. NOT THINK IT WOULD BE THAT BIG OF A DEAL???

WHAT BUSINESS IN WASHINGTON DC COULD POSSIBLY HAVE BEEN MORE IMPORTANT THAN THIS??? WHAT WHAT WHAT WHAT????

Seriously! Because there are no good answers to these questions, the quality of your judgement must be called into question and as a result, your leadership ability is not credible. This is very much like that jackass George Bush Jr. being missing in action during the aftermath of Katrina in New Orleans.I cannot get over this: DID YOU NOT KNOW WHAT ACTION YOUR POLICE FORCE WAS ABOUT TO TAKE???

I am a long term Oakland resident, and I work for another major Bay Area city so I know too well how complex these issues are. But I expect my leaders, those people we elect and who are paid with our tax dollars TO LEAD. This is totally inexcusable to not have seen your face at all during this horrible horrible day into night here in our wonderful city.

THIS IS INEXCUSABLY SHAMEFUL - TO BE MISSING WHEN WE NEED LEADERSHIP. WE DESERVE BETTER THAN THIS. Do you GET that an INTERIM POLICE CHIEF is not the leader of the City? Where is anyone we elected to office? I have watched the news for hours and ONLY heard De La Fuentes' voice on KCBS for a moment. This is sickening....

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I am disgusted by the excessive use of force against a peaceful protest. These protesters are the real patriots of our time and their brutalization by the Oakland Police is an insult to, a soiling of the US Constitution. Wake up Quan and look to more enlightened mayors, such as Portland's, to see how you should have behaved. What you have allowed to happen is a disgrace. Your cheeks should be flushed with shame.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Subject: Message from City Administrator re: Ogawa Plaza Update

Dear City Staff,

I am writing to provide an update of the Occupy Oakland situation and Frank Ogawa Plaza. This morning, the City will reopen to the public and resume normal business hours in the Civic Center buildings surrounding Frank Ogawa Plaza (City Hall, 150 and 250). While we are open to the public, we will be putting out a media advisory that requests that individuals seeking City Hall services use discretion to time sensitive/urgent services and patience with City Staff.

Despite a number of protests in downtown Oakland yesterday afternoon and into the evening, the City's efforts to clean up the Plaza and prepare it for reopening are moving along smoothly. Many thanks to the Public Works Facilities staff for their extraordinary efforts to clean up the tent encampment, power wash the hardscape and sidewalks, remove graffiti, and begin to restore the Plaza for everyone to enjoy. It's been a big job and I appreciate that they have done it quickly and well. In addition, many thanks to staff that reported to work and continued to fulfill work responsibilities throughout the day under very unusual circumstances. I continue to appreciate the high level of team work and professionalism.

We anticipate that Frank Ogawa Plaza will re-open later this afternoon—once deemed safe to enter. We will provide more specific detail about the opening of the Plaza when we have it and further information/direction to City staff.

The Emergency Operations Center will remain open until further notice to allow the City to effectively coordinate any response that is necessary and to speed our return to normalcy.

Once again, I greatly appreciate your ongoing patience, dedication to service and spirit of cooperation as we have navigated the challenges posed by this situation over the past days and weeks. I continue to be impressed with the level of dedication of City employees and your collective service to our constituents.

Sincerely,

Yes, there may be a way out of this...and I'm open to be part of a solution. Spoke w. Adam at "Just Cause" who should be key, along with the Labor Council, to structuring a renewed occupation site.

Wow, this is coming from Josie.

Here is a list of the Mayors who are supporting occupations:

You've gotta call for an investigation into excessive police use of force & review police policies on peaceful demonstrations to isolate only the provocateurs.

The Alameda Central Labor Council just issued a press release and statement condemning Oakland Mayor Jean Quan for the violent police raids of Occupy Oakland.

Please let me know if your organization decides to issue a similar statement. It is important for the Mayor to understand that the left/progressive community won't stand for her actions.

Support the Occupy Wall Street Oakland Movement

Review the press release and resolution in support of the Occupy Wall Street Oakland movement calling for the release of those arrested in the early hours of the morning on Tuesday, October 25, 2011.

ALAMEDA LABOR COUNCIL

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF OCCUPY WALL STREET AND OCCUPY OAKLAND

Whereas, the Occupy Wall Street protest and its Oakland counterpart is an action opposed to the income inequality, the unfair tax structure, the bank bailouts, and the undue corporate influence and greed that has created America's current economic malaise, undermined its social contract, and laid to waste its ideals, and;

Whereas, the negative effects of this elemental economic injustice are borne by middle class working families and the poor, while the financial racketeers most responsible for it are not only not held accountable but are allowed to continue to extract outrageous profits from it, and;

Whereas, in a nation where 25 million people are out of work, where 50 million people have no access to health care, and where 1 in 5 children grow up in poverty without adequate access to food, clothing and shelter, where funding for public education is gutted, where infrastructure is left to decay, and where millions of Americans have lost their homes due to a flawed and sometimes fraudulent process of foreclosure, causing misery and hardship and lost tax revenue, and;

Whereas, the salaries and bonuses of corporate executives continue to skyrocket while real wages for most workers have stagnated for the last 30 years during which period the gains in the economy have accrued almost entirely to the top 1% who now control at least 40% of the nation's wealth, and where the top 400 Americans control more wealth than the bottom 180 million, and;

Whereas, in a nation where corporations are treated as people and money as speech, exacerbated by the Supreme Court's 5-4 decision in Citizen's United v. Federal Election Commission to allow unlimited spending on elections to vault corporate influence to a new extreme and gaining further advantage over an already tilted political system, a system which now threatens to reduce the voice of the people to irrelevance, and;

Whereas, the rights of working people have been routinely attacked by the same unfair corporate power structure that led to new era of robber baron income inequality. Such attacks include illegal interference with right to form or join a union and have used the economic crisis in both the public and private sectors as a pretext for rolling back benefits, cutting wages, and limiting the rights of unions, and;

Whereas, the Alameda Labor Council has for more than 100 years supported the rights of workers and protesters to peaceably assemble and engage in non-violent demonstrations to expose economic and social injustice and attempt to adjust inequality and discrimination in any form, now;

Therefore be it resolved, that the Alameda Labor Council shares the outrage, frustration and resolve of the protesters, commits to the fight, and goes on record in support of the Occupy Oakland and the entire Occupy Wall Street movement, and;

Therefore be it further resolved, that the Alameda Labor Council supports the right of the protesters to peaceably assemble and opposes any effort to unreasonably evict protesters based on unsupported claims of public safety, and, in light of last night's eviction calls on the City of Oakland to release the arrested, drop the charges, restore the occupation or otherwise reverse the silencing of the voice of the majority of Americans by providing continuous forum for this message and;

Therefore be it further resolved, that Mayor Quan and the City Council are on the wrong side of history. It is clear that what occurred in Snow Park and Frank Ogawa Plaza this morning is nothing but silencing the voices and stomping out the rights of Americans. Participants of Occupy Wall Street are now in their ninth week of declaring that "we are the 99%" because our system is desperately, decisively out of whack—the top 1% is pocketing massive profits and dominating our politics while everyone else struggles to make ends meet. It is shocking that Mayor Quan and the City Council feel that this is a message that needs to be silenced. The Alameda Labor Council stands with Occupy Wall Street and the 99% of Americans just trying to level the massively unequal playing field.

Therefore be it finally resolved

, that the Alameda Labor Council supports the non-violent efforts of the protesters to seek a more democratic and equitable society and repeats the demand for an economy that works for all Americans.

The Alameda Labor Council condemns the eviction of the Occupy Oakland protesters in an unprovoked raid on peaceful protesters. Police then evicted protesters at Snow Park. In a nation where 25 million people are out of work, where 50 million people have no access to health care, and where 1 in 5 children grow up in poverty without adequate access to food, clothing and shelter, where funding for public education is gutted, where infrastructure is left to decay, and where millions of Americans have lost their homes due to foreclosure, this outrageous act to silence the voices of the protesters puts Mayor Quan and the City Council on the wrong side of history. At a time when resources are stretched in Oakland it is shameful that City funds are expended to silence the voices of the people. The Alameda Labor Council stands with the 99% in supporting the right of the protesters to peaceably assemble. We oppose the eviction and call on the City of Oakland to release the arrested, drop the charges, restore the occupation or otherwise reverse this silencing of the voice of the majority of Americans.

Early this morning hundreds of police from all over the Bay Area surrounded Frank Ogawa Plaza

I'm sure I'm not telling you anything, but you were better off leaving the protesters where they were. They weren't hurting anyone, and now Oakland looks like destination one for protesters looking to fight.

Police brutality, lies about tactics used on protesters, what else will we add to the disconnect between the left and the city? The right is already lining up to impeach the mayor--this will only give them support on the left.

What would be great is if you would stop this. Adopt a progressive attitude about what is turning out to be a nationwide protest that may in fact have some impact. That would renew my faith in this city I love. Radical acceptance of your city, warts and all, is the answer.

The literal meaning of the Sinhalese term 'degurun' is: 'the two teachers'. It actually refers to the two parents of a child. The Sanskrit-derived 'poorwachareen' has the meaning 'the first teachers', and is also a term for 'parents'. The existence of these terms signifies the importance that our culture traditionally attaches to parents in the education of a child. Parental engagement in education is therefore nothing new to us.

It's time we appreciated the value of this traditional wisdom. In developed countries, for example Australia and Canada, promoting parental participation in education is government policy. The Australian Capital Territory Department of Education published in September 2001 the educational policy known as the 'parents/carers as partners in schooling', which acknowledges "parents/carers as first educators of their children and their right to participate in their children's schooling". Another example from Australia is the Parental and Community Program which specifically aims to ensure parents' engagement with schools and education providers among the indigenous population. In Ontario, Canada, government funds schemes to involve parents in children's education.

We in Sri Lanka are familiar with parents' protests, sit-ins, fasts, etc demanding redress for various anomalies in school education today. That kind of parental 'involvement' is different from what is meant here by 'engagement', as will be clear in the course of this essay. It is useful to reflect, however, that parent initiatives such as protests and fasts focusing on problems in education demonstrate an encouraging trend towards a growing awareness among parents about the importance of education, which can eventually lead to their 'engagement' in that all important activity (i.e. education).

The idea of engaging themselves in the education of their children is likely to be difficult for many Sri Lankan parents to put into practice in view of other vital demands on their time and resources. Economic pressure is too much for one parent to sustain in most cases. And today, families where both parents work are the norm. In rural villages poverty drives a considerable number of unemployed or underemployed women out of the country to seek gainful employment mostly as housemaids in West Asian countries; a large number of men also work abroad for the same reason.

This is one main cause of there being more single-parent families in the country than ever before; another, of course, is the civil war that ended two years ago. Because of these and other constraints the concept of parental participation in education could sound unrealistic in our context. But we can't wait until conditions are perfect for a useful proposition to be discussed and practically implemented wherever possible under the prevailing circumstances.

What education involves has undergone profound change in the course of time, though its essence hasn't: the central aim of education remains essentially the same, which is the training of the individual as a moral and useful member of the society. The educative process today is much more complex than in the past. Teaching has become a highly specialised skill, and learning involves the learner in collaborative social interaction as well as autonomous creative endeavour. But the role of parents as the primary educators of the young hasn't diminished in any way. Rather, it looks as if parents have got to play a more involved part in the education of their children in the present time than before.

Sixty-five years of free education means that the least educated parent today has passed Grade Five, and is quite conversant with what happens in a school and what learning involves. They are quite competent to play the educative role expected of them. In fact, they need not be very highly educated to be able to guide their school-going children. They have the highest qualification to do that job: love for their offspring. That is the most vital factor that has no substitute.

Parent engagement in education occurs at two levels: home and school. Home is where children start picking up moral values. The common saying "Charity begins at home" usually means, as everyone knows, that we should be kind and generous to our own family before we offer to treat others with kindness and generosity. But the saying can also be interpreted to mean that the foundation for a charitable society is laid at home in the sense that children learn to be loving and caring towards others from their parents and older siblings at home. Parents teach children good moral conduct by setting an example, not through coercive preaching.

We live in a secular democracy. Our society is multiethnic, multilingual, and multicultural. We need to inculcate in our children values that will enable them to live with their neighbours in peace and harmony despite differences. It should be demonstrated that it is not wrong to be different, and that diversity is not something to fear or worry about. Language and religion have been divisive factors in our society to some extent. Mutual respect between people speaking different languages, and following different religions is essential for overcoming these divisions. The Trilingual programme that is being inaugurated is in response to the popular perception that a knowledge of English, Sinhalese, and Tamil will contribute to national integration. Parents can do a great deal to make this plan a success. They must also show that all religions teach moral values, which are compatible with each other, and highlight the principle of tolerance that is advocated in them. It is essential for parents to be aware of the moral values taught in the school. There shouldn't be any contradiction between those values and what the children are exposed to at home, for value education is best achieved as a joint responsibility of parents and school.

At home, parents can play a direct role in helping children in their school education by finding time to be with them while they do their homework. This shouldn't be a haphazard activity. First, a regular time every day needs to be set aside for study, say one, one and a half, or two hours, etc with beginning and ending times fixed beforehand as suitable depending on convenience and circumstances. A quiet peaceful environment that helps concentration is an essential condition. Some parents, exhausted after a hard day's work, try to get the best of both worlds by lazing before a TV in one corner of the sitting room while having children do their homework in another corner. This is no way to get engaged in educating them.

Children, being children, easily lose interest in what adults consider to be most important. They sometimes feel that schoolwork is best forgotten. Homework is an additional burden that they have to carry. Parents should ease this burden not by doing the homework for the children, but by turning it into an opportunity to show off the skills acquired at school. It is good to get them to talk about what they did at school, and about what they learnt. Although the information that students are required to know may be new and beyond the grasp of their parents, the latter can occasionally demand to have it explained to them. This is a good strategy to get children to tackle problems they encounter in studies by themselves.

Parents should encourage children to learn by themselves. A good way to do this is to show appreciation of their efforts in that direction by rewarding them appropriately. For example, parents can promise to buy them a computer and an internet connection (or if they already have these, some other reward) if they agree to save money for the purpose by cutting down on private tuition. Parents should, within their means, supply supplementary materials like books, magazines, journals, newspapers, etc that are relevant for their studies, and get them to use these at home.

There are a number of ways in which parents could play a role in education at the school level. Meeting with the teachers individually on a regular basis to discuss children's progress and problems is one of these. The knowledge that parents are keeping tabs on their children's performance at school makes teachers feel more responsible towards their charges, and to have better control over them. Familiarity with a child's home background enables a teacher to individualise their approach in classroom teaching. This parent-teacher communication causes children to be extra alert in their studies as well as general conduct.

Educational tours, field trips, charity events etc organized by schools afford parents a good opportunity for voluntary participation. Not all parents can engage in such events all the time. Representative groups of parents should take turns as proper. While providing guidance and protection they need to respect the children's autonomy and initiative in organizing and executing the relevant activities where they are old enough to do so. Parents can engage themselves in school education as members of Parent Teacher Associations. They can also serve on school committees, councils, boards etc.

Given the fact that a modern knowledge society is emerging where parents are more techno-savvy than today, we may reasonably expect parent engagement in education to be enhanced in the near future through the use of modern communications technologies in the form of institution based websites, homepages, videos, newsletters, calendars, etc which will enable close communication between parents, educators and students. These electronic tools will help parents to access, whenever necessary, information about the attendance, performance, grades, etc of their children; it will also keep parents informed of special educational events, celebrations, trips, etc so that they could participate in them.

Parent engagement goes beyond mere involvement in the affairs of a school: it consists in parental participation in a tripartite partnership (i.e. between parents, students, and teachers) focussed on an active process of education. Naturally, parent engagement supports useful communication between children, parents, and teachers; healthy interaction between these three groups is vital for education. Engaged parents prove to be valuable resources for experience, expertise, knowledge, and skills. The collaboration between parents and educators that parent engagement achieves can be used to promote the understanding of diverse cultural values and languages, and social integration in our multiethnic society. Since engaged parents are aware of what usually goes on in a classroom, and how students learn they can make a valuable contribution to the success of school activities. They also support students at home. It's no wonder that parent engagement leads to significant improvement in student attendance and performance, and hence the general standard of education in the country.

Even the best educated in America have trouble competing with the mediocre of developed and developing countries around the world.

When the Best is Mediocre

Developed countries far outperform our most affluent suburbs

By Jay P. Greene and Josh B. McGee
Winter 2012 / Vol. 12, No. 1

(This article is excerpted and is not the complete article. Click Here to view complete article)

American education has problems, almost everyone is willing to concede, but many think those problems are mostly concentrated in our large urban school districts. In the elite suburbs, where wealthy and politically influential people tend to live, the schools are assumed to be world-class. Unfortunately, what everyone knows is wrong. Even the most elite suburban school districts often produce results that are mediocre when compared with those of our international peers. Our best school districts may look excellent alongside large urban districts, the comparison state accountability systems encourage, but that measure provides false comfort. America's elite suburban students are increasingly competing with students outside the United States for economic opportunities, and a meaningful assessment of student achievement requires a global, not a local, comparison.

We developed the Global Report Card (GRC) to facilitate such a comparison. The GRC enables users to compare academic achievement in math and reading between 2004 and 2007 for virtually every public school district in the United States with the average achievement in a set of 25 other countries with developed economies that might be considered our economic peers and sometime competitors. The main results are reported as percentiles of a distribution, which indicates how the average student in a district performs relative to students throughout the advanced industrialized world. A percentile of 60 means that the average student in a district is achieving better than 59.9 percent of the students in our global comparison group. (Readers can find all of the results of the Global Report Card at http://globalreportcard.org. The web site contains a full description of the method by which we calculated the results. For a summary, see the methodology sidebar.)

For the purposes of this article, we focus on the 2007 math results, although the GRC contains information for both math and reading between 2004 and 2007. We focus on 2007 because it is the most recent data set, and we focus on math because it is the subject that provides the best comparison across countries and is most closely correlated with economic growth. Readers should feel free to consult the GRC web site to find reading results as well as results for other years.

Results from Affluent Suburbs Nationwide

Affluent suburban districts may be outperforming their large urban neighbors, but they fail to achieve near the top of international comparisons (see Figure 1). White Plains, New York, in suburban Westchester County, is only at the 39th percentile in math relative to our global comparison group. Grosse Point, Michigan, outside of Detroit, is at the 56th percentile. Evanston, Illinois, the home of Northwestern University outside of Chicago, is at the 48th percentile in math. The average student in Montgomery County, Maryland, where many of the national government leaders send their children to school, is at the 50th percentile in math relative to students in other developed countries. The average student in Fairfax, Virginia, another suburban refuge for government leaders, is at the 49th percentile. Shaker Heights, Ohio, outside of Cleveland, is at the 50th percentile in math. The average student in Lower Merion, Pennsylvania, near Philadelphia, is at the 66th percentile. Ladue, Missouri, a wealthy suburb of St. Louis, is at the 62nd percentile. And the average student in Plano, Texas, near Dallas, is at the 64th percentile in math relative to our global comparison group.

All of these communities are among the wealthiest in the United States. All are overwhelmingly white in their population. All of them are thought of as refuges from the dysfunction of our public school system. But the sad reality is that in none of them is the average student in the upper third of math achievement relative to students in other developed countries. Most of them are barely keeping pace with the average student in other developed countries, despite the fact that the comparison is to all students in the other countries, some of which have a per-capita gross domestic product that is almost half that of the United States. In short, many of what we imagine as our best school districts are mediocre compared with the education systems serving students in other developed countries.

Pockets of Excellence

While many affluent suburban districts have lower achievement than we might expect, some districts are producing very high achievement even when compared with that of students in other developed countries. For example, the average student in the Pelham school district in Massachusetts is at the 95th percentile in math. That means that if we were to relocate Pelham to another developed country in our comparison group, the average student in Pelham would outperform 95 percent of the students in math. That's very impressive.

Of course, Pelham is a small district that is home to Amherst College, among other institutions of higher learning, and serves a rather select group of students. But not all college-town school districts are equally high achieving. As we have already seen, Evanston, Illinois, is at the 48th percentile in math in a global comparison. Palo Alto, California, the home of Stanford University, is at the 64th percentile. And the average student in Ann Arbor, Michigan, home to the University of Michigan, is at the 58th percentile in math relative to students in other developed countries. So, the 95th percentile math achievement in Pelham is outstanding, even for college towns.

Spring Lake, New Jersey, has a similarly impressive record of having the average student at the 91st percentile in math. It is a very small and affluent community on the New Jersey shore that has somehow escaped the influence of Snooki and The Situation. Waconda, Kansas, a small rural community, also is at the 91st percentile. Highland Park, Texas, an affluent community near Dallas, is at the 88th percentile.

Interestingly, of the top 20 U.S. public-school districts in math achievement, 7 are charter schools (some states treat charter schools as separate public-school districts). And most of the 13 traditional districts remaining are in rural communities rather than in a large suburban "refuge" from urban education ills.

Pools of Failure

In total, only 820 of the 13,636 public-school districts for which we have 2007 math results had average student achievement that would be among the top third of student performance in other developed countries. That is, 94 percent of all U.S. school districts have average math achievement below the 67th percentile. There aren't that many truly excellent districts out there.

Of the 13,636 districts, 9,339, or 68 percent, have average student math achievement that is below the 50th percentile compared with that of the average student in other developed countries. Most of our large school districts are well below the 50th percentile. This is especially alarming, because these lower-performing large districts comprise a much greater share of the total student population than do the relatively small higher-performing districts.

The average student in the Washington, D.C., school district is at the 11th percentile in math relative to students in other developed countries. In Detroit, the average student is at the 12th percentile. In Milwaukee, the average student is at the 16th percentile. Cleveland is at the 18th percentile. The average student in Baltimore is at the 19th percentile in math relative to students in other developed countries. In Los Angeles, the average student is at the 20th percentile. The average student in Chicago is at the 21st percentile in math. Atlanta is at the 23rd percentile. The average student in New York City is at the 32nd percentile in math. And in Miami-Dade County, the average student is at the 33rd percentile in math.

Not 1 of the largest 20 school districts is above the 50th percentile in math relative to other developed countries. Those districts contain almost 5.2 million students or more than 10 percent of the country's schoolchildren. The rare and small pockets of excellence in charter schools and rural communities are overwhelmed by large pools of failure.

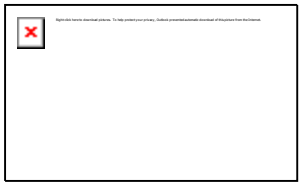
No Refuge

The elites, the wealthy families that have a disproportionate influence on politics, clearly recognize the dysfunction of large urban school districts and have sought refuge in affluent suburban districts for their own children. But the reality is that there are relatively few pockets of excellence to which these families can flee.

In four states, there is not a single traditional district with average student achievement above the 50th percentile in math. In 17 states, there is not a single traditional district with average achievement in the upper third relative to our global comparison group. And apart from charter school districts, in over half of the states, there are no more than three traditional districts in which the average achievement would be in the upper third.

The elites in those states have almost nowhere to find an excellent public education for their children. But state accountability systems and the desire to rationalize the lack of quality options have encouraged the elites to compare their affluent suburban districts to the large urban ones in their state. These inappropriate comparisons have falsely reassured them that their own school districts are doing well.

This false reassurance has also perhaps undermined the desire among the elites to engage in dramatic education reform. As long as the elites hold onto the belief that their own school districts are excellent, they have little desire to push for the kind of significant systemic reforms that might improve their districts as well as the large urban districts. They may wish the urban districts well and hope matters improve, but their taste for bold reform is limited by a false contentment with their own situation.



But the elites should not take comfort from the stronger performance of affluent suburban districts relative to large urban districts. As the Global Report Card reveals, even our best public-school districts are mediocre when compared with the achievement of students in a set of countries with developed economies.

Of course, the Global Report Card does not isolate the extent to which schools add or detract from student performance. Factors from student backgrounds, including their parents, communities, and individual characteristics, have a strong influence on achievement. But the GRC does tell us about the end result for student achievement of all of these factors, schools included. And that end result, even in our best districts, is generally disappointing.

In England, Government Decides that Good Parenting is Critical to High Academic Achievement

The Toyota/Black Star Parent University teaches more parents to be great parents than any other program in the midwest of the U.S.

Free parenting classes trial to run in England

October 16, 2011

Free parenting classes are to be trialled for all parents with children aged five and under in three areas of England, children's minister Sarah Teather has said.

They are intended for parents even if they are not struggling with raising children, she said.

About 50,000 parents in Middlesbrough, High Peak, and Camden will be offered vouchers for the classes from mid-2012.

Labour criticised the government cuts to the children's programme it set up.

'Firm and fair'

The classes, provided by parenting experts, are likely to cover areas such as communication and listening skills, managing conflict and "strengthening positive relationships in the family", as well as the importance of parents working as a team.

There will also be a stress on discipline, with "firm, fair and consistent approaches" encouraged and the importance of "boundaries" being set out for children.

And there will be advice on appropriate play for children's age and development.

Children's minister

Ms Teather said she wanted to get rid of the stigma over asking for help.

"Parenting classes aren't just for struggling families," she said.

"All parents should know it's OK to ask for extra support and guidance when they need it - just as they do when they attend ante-natal classes before their child is born."

The trial will run for two years, with its impact tracked, the department said. It is hoped the results will lead a greater number of parents to seek help and advice themselves.

The government says it is still working on the details but it is likely that the vouchers will be distributed through various routes. It was unknown if health visitors, GP staff or nursery workers would be involved.

Ms Teather added that there was overwhelming evidence that a child's development in the first five years' of their life is the single biggest factor influencing their future life chances, health and education attainment.

"Armed with all this evidence, it is the government's moral and social duty to make sure we support all parents at this critical time.

"Parenting has to be one of the toughest jobs and it doesn't come with a rule book."

'Out of touch'

Shadow children's minister Sharon Hodgson criticised the coalition's policy towards Sure Start - a children's centre network established by Labour in the late 1990s to give more deprived children a better chance in life.

Some of the 3,600 Sure Start children's centres are being cut because the grant that funds them was cut by 11% in last year's emergency budget, and again in the comprehensive spending review by almost the same percentage.

The government also removed the protection from the Sure Start budget, leaving them potentially at risk as councils seek to make up losses to their central government grants overall.

Ms Hodgson said: "Labour is in favour of support for families and children, but the Tory-led government is completely out of touch if they think this is going to make up for the Sure Start centres that are being closed or hollowed out up and down the country...

"This government's reckless cuts programme is kicking away the ladders for the next generation and the closure of Sure Start centres is just another example of this."

Ed Owen, editor of fatherhood website www.daddybegood.com, said: "Every teacher, psychologist and educationalist will tell you that the first years of a child's life are important.

"Some suggest that the first two years are decisive. This does not mean that every child must be schooled, drilled and disciplined to make them model citizens at this young age. No, it means that in the first years children must be loved."

Is Marriage for White People?

Author of

Is Marriage for White People?

How the African American Marriage Decline Affects Everyone

Chicago, Illinois

The Invisible Institute is pleased to present Ralph Richard Banks in a public conversation about his book Is Marriage for White People? How the African American Marriage Decline Affects Everyone.

Is Marriage for White People? promises to spark a robust national conversation about race and relationships. Banks explores the broad economic and cultural developments that have resulted in a society-wide decline in marriage--a decline that is most extreme among African Americans. Weaving together scholarly research with personal stories of women throughout the nation, he advances the challenging thesis that interracial marriage is the best hope for increasing marriage within the African American community.

Although black women confront the smallest pool of viable partners due to the myriad struggles of black men, they rarely marry men of other races. As Banks sees it, black women would not only benefit themselves by being willing to marry a man of a different race, but would also bolster marriage among African American couples. Although often portrayed as abandonment of the race, interracial marriage by black women, he argues, in fact serves the race.

For a taste of the public discussion--and controversy--prompted by Banks' thesis, check out the media page on the book's web site.

Ralph Richard Banks is the Jackson Eli Reynolds Professor of Law at Stanford Law School.
Praise for Is Marriage for White People?

- "Fascinating--and very brave! Banks stays up close and personal as he surveys the brambly landscape of marriage prospects for accomplished African American women bringing into view rarely seen prides, longings, prejudices, and unexpected choices. Banks' probing examination makes a gripping read." - Nancy Cott, Harvard University
- "This brilliant and provocative book tells stories we all need to hear." - Susan Fiske, Princeton University
- "Learned and unflinching, careful but provocative. Banks unabashedly explores the most volatile racial issues. Sure to provoke fierce debate." - Randall Kennedy, Harvard Law School

A Campaign for Black Male Achievement, Improvement and Action

Rumble Young Man, Rumble!

Press Release Contact: Kenneth Braswell
October 24, 2011 Phone: 518-227-6161

Black Men Across America Organize National Strategic Planning Summits for Black Male Achievement

Fathers Incorporated and The Black Star Project Help Coordinate 25 Cities to Improve the Plight of Black Males in America

Under the inspiration of Muhammad Ali's "float like a butterfly, sting like a bee; Rumble Young Man Rumble" rallying cry, major urban cities will strategize to address issues of Black Male achievement in their own communities on November 12th. "We spend an awful amount of time laboring over the sobering and tragic statistics facing black males," says Kenneth Braswell, Executive Director of Fathers Incorporated. "As black men, we are way overdue to do something about it and to stop just talking about and waiting for someone to rescue us."

"We are the leaders, we've been waiting for," says Shawn Dove, Campaign Manager for the Campaign for Black Male Achievement at the Open Society Foundations. Major urban cities across the nation are far from claiming victory for Black Male achievement. Double digit unemployment rates, incarceration, health disparities, low educational obtainment figures and violence are just a short list of items yet to be addressed for this population of men. Even as America's frustration with the economics of our country continue to bubble under, movements like the Tea Party, Occupy Wall Street and other activities to address poverty are still leaving black males behind.

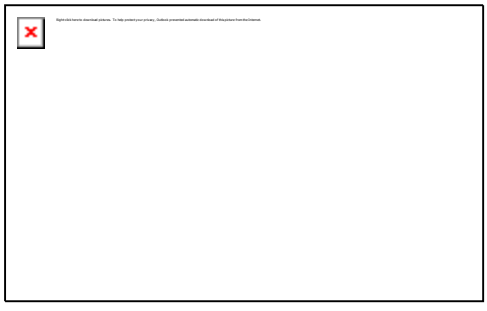
In Louisville, Kentucky last month the Open Society Foundations hosted over 75 leaders from around the country who gathered to address how they would mobilize efforts using the spirit of the Muhammad Ali center and his legacy of principles. Muhammad Ali was quoted to say, "Impossible is just a big word thrown around by small men who find it easier to live in the world they've been given than to explore the power they have to change it. Impossible is not a fact. It's an opinion. Impossible is not a declaration. It's a dare. Impossible is potential. Impossible is temporary. Impossible is nothing." It is that sentiment that has inspired this recent urgency of work.



"Much of why this work is so critical can be seen right here in Chicago where more Black children died in Chicago from gunfire in 2008 than Chicago soldiers died in Iraq," says Phillip Jackson, President of The Black Star Project. In addition to high levels of violence, 50 % of all Black men between the ages of 16 and 64 years old are jobless. "These numbers are devastating our families and destroying our communities; and not unique to just Chicago," continues Jackson.

In addition to the day of planning; there will be a 10-city role call via video conference to introduce, share information and explore solutions with the 25 men from each city. Afterward a report will be compiled in order to capsulate strategies that will address the multi issues facing the nations Black Males. THE FOLLOWING CITIES HAVE SIGNED ON SO FAR: 1) Albany, New York, 2) Atlanta, Georgia, 3) Baltimore, Maryland, 4) Baton Rouge, Louisiana, 5) Chicago, Illinois, 6) Cincinnati, Ohio, 7) Jackson, Mississippi, 8) Louisville, Kentucky, 9) Los Angeles, California, 10) Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 11) Newark, New Jersey, 12) New York City, New York, 13) Omaha, Nebraska; 14) Peoria, Illinois; 14) Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 15) Phoenix, Arizona, 16) San Bernardino, California and 17) Washington, D.C.

We are encouraging your city to participate in addressing issues affecting Black Males in your community. For information on how your city can be involved in this national campaign and receive a organizing kit; please call 773.285.9600 or email The Black Star Project at blackstar1000@ameritch.net. Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Because what the Oakland Police has done & are doing to these protestors is a violation of the U.S. Constitution -- it is FACISM! And I want you toknow that the WORLD is watching you!!

Subject: Re: Occupy Oakland - City needs to back off and offer solutions

Thanks Libby for your response and hopefully work to make the City, once again, a positive place for all of us who believe in change and focusing on the real problems of our country -- the Wall St. abuses and all the social problems created by unemployment, underemployment, lack of healthcare, education and service cutbacks are unprecedented.

I/we are especially angered at the way the city handled this. Questions:
1. Posting notices may be necessary but is also bureaucratic.

- Who was meeting with the group?
- What alternatives did the city offer?
- How could the city/mayor/city manager/city council worked with everyone to make Oakland a model for community involvement and protest against corporate forces that are hurting us all.
- After deadlines came and went why would anyone take a deadline seriously?
- Where was the Mayor and the call for community leadership to be involved like in other situations she has involved herself in?

Why isn't the City Council more involved in this -- the "occupy" folks and city residents are all constituents of yours and other city council members.

Oakland again is receiving NATIONAL bad publicity over this. Doesn't anyone care. It's really clear that in virtually every grassroots movement repression and police action usually escalates and strengthens the demonstrations.

The City/Mayor/Police/City Manager need to take responsibility for making this worse and offer a place for the group to stay and ways for the group to be constructively involved with the city....

thanks, Susan

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

The issue of it being cleaned up was the only reason I have heard for the need to evict. It seems to me that a less forcefull police action could be pursued instaed of this horrible outrage!!

Dear Ms. Quan,

The protestors arrested in the process of clearing out the park need to be cited and released now. They did nothing wrong and have jobs to keep and children to support. Your actions, and that of the police, are drawing the attention of the entire nation. You will be remembered - the only question is how. It's up to you to do what's right and end the shameful abuse of power that's being used against completely peaceful citizens who are exercising their right to be in public space and express their opinions.

Protestors are being blamed for trashing the park, despite the fact it's the police who have really trashed it since the forceful eviction of the group. This violent opposition to a peaceful protest represents a huge waste of resources and abuse of power.

Thank you for your consideration and prompt, firm action.

Hi, Rejoyce:

The news last night said that Interim Chief Batts was in charge at that time. Councilmember Ignacio De La Fuentes and someone who looked like Council President Larry Reid stood next to him at a press conference.

Mayor Quan was in Washington, D.C. trying to get funding for Oakland (I think for the Port) at the time.

It appears the lice were in the mattresses and bedding strewn at the FO/OG Plaza. Vector Control was cleaning up the area so the public can go back there.

I walk around Downtown a lot and it's no fun encountering human or animal poop as well as the smell of urine on the sidewalks. I think there should have been more portable potty houses provided for that large number of campers and I agree the violence was totally unacceptable.

Kit

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

You take away freedom of expression, and what is the US or any other nation good for?

Why Ms Mayor. I am sure you could have negotiated instead of taking violent action.

You injured some veterans. Shame on you and your police department.

Subject: Why are you making Oakland worse?

I've lived in the Bay Area for 30 years & raised five children here. They are educated & I hope, aware of the world around them. It was EXTREMELY DISTURBING to watch videos of your police gassing OWS sympathetic protesters, while your city continues to be the scourge of the Bay Area. As an older woman, I've been afraid to go there, even to go through Oakland to visit my closest friend, who lived in Alameda.

Is THIS what you want the country to see? You lay off police (I knew one of them) while you have the highest # of murder, rape & aggravated assaults in the Bay Area? Why in the world are you making Oakland's reputation even worse? Do you not think a Children's Hospital with a gunshot ward isn't bad enough? If you don't have any better ideas, why don't you just resign?

Subject: This is totally not about the Occupy Oakland eviction press release.

Hello Ms. Quan,

First I would like to provide you with the Merriam-Webster definition of peaceful. This is for your own benefit as your press release regarding the eviction of Occupy Oakland leads me to believe that you do not understand the meaning of the words you are using.

Definition of PEACEFUL

1 : peaceable
2 : untroubled by conflict, agitation, or commotion : quiet, tranquil
3 : of or relating to a state or time of peace
4 : devoid of violence or force

— peace·ful·ly adverb

Examples of PEACEFUL

1. The park is so peaceful and quiet.
2. They settled the conflict by peaceful means.
3. We need to find a peaceful alternative to war.

Adding the qualifier word of "mostly" before the word "peaceful" doesn't come close to describing these events accurately.

The actions of the Oakland Police Department, under instruction from you, were not anywhere near peaceful. If anything their actions and your commending their actions makes it very clear that the message of the Occupy movement is hitting the proverbial nail on the head. The violent reaction to this movement tells us that we are on the right path to destroying the corrupt racket that colluding politicians like you have built for yourselves.

Please have your police department keep violently attacking the people you are supposed to be representing. Every rubber bullet fired and every canister of tear gas thrown is just further evidence for us that you are not on the side of the people. Please continue to expose yourself as a pathetic pawn of the wealthy Democrat-Republican regime currently destroying our democracy. Your days as the Mayor of Oakland are numbered and I'm pretty sure, that by now, you know this to be true.

The continued use of violence against unarmed peaceful protesters is all the evidence we need to know the truth. You fear the change this movement is bringing to the point of commending the use of violence against the people you are supposed to represent, that you are supposed to protect. The curtain has been pulled aside and now the whole world can see what a useful puppet you are for the wealthy corporations to whom you prostitute yourself.

Ms. Quan, I hope you waste a lot of your own money and the money of your corporate owners on your re-election campaign. I doubt you will have the support of the people of Oakland to win another term.

You and the Oakland Police Department don't deserve anything but condemnation and denigration. That is all that has been earned.

The whole world is watching.

Sincerely,
Mariah Anger

That information and the photographs totally contradicts the Oakland police saying "no injuries" and "no rubber bullets." I have long been a proud Californian. This is an embarrassment. People are fed up with corporate rule. Police in other cities are recognizing that the 99% are NOT the problem and should have a right to free speech, freedom to assemble and so forth.

The behavior of the Oakland Police is unacceptable!

Fall is in the air and welcoming change is always the invitation.

That truism is a fact of life and more true than ever for all of us closely associated with the California Department of Corrections.

In completing this program the men have learned, practiced and demonstrated the important life skills of personal accountability, emotional literacy, critical thinking, impulse control and conflict resolution.

Victim Offender Education Group (VOEG): Congratulations to the sixteen lifers in VOEG groups facilitated by Rochelle Edwards and Jack Dison that completed an intensive 64 week VOEG program. This group includes holding oneself accountable for their crimes and meeting with a panel of survivors to hear their stories to understand the impact of crime in their lives.

Training Opportunities

Yoga Facilitator Training: The weekend of September 10 & 11, James Fox conducted a special IPP facilitator training at CorePower Yoga in Berkeley for yoga teachers interested in teaching in prisons and rehabilitation facilities. Twenty two yogini's were in attendance, several who are already working with incarcerated or at-risk populations or have the opportunity to do so.

Restorative Justice Facilitator Training - In September, ten people participated in IPP's Restorative Justice Phase 1 Facilitator Training. This is the starting point for all trainees seeking an understanding of IPP's philosophy, methodology and facilitation model.

Upcoming Restorative Justice Facilitator Trainings

- Phase 2: VOEG Intensive Curriculum and Implementation Training October 26 - 29, 2011
- Phase 3: Advanced VOEG Facilitation Training and Case Consultation February 23 - 25, 2012
- Phase 1: IPP Basic Facilitation Skills Training (5-Day) Spring 2012 (dates will be announced in early 2012)
- Victim Offender Dialogue (VOD) Mediator Training (5-Day): February 6 - 10, 2012.

Learning Assessment Committee (LAC)

During the 2010/11 FY Insight Prison Project formed an interdisciplinary assessment committee to act in an advisory capacity regarding assessment of program effectiveness by supporting assessment of learning outcomes in our classes. The members of the LAC are:

- IPP staff liaison (Jaimee Karroll)
- Prisoner rights attorney and a full time graduate student in social psychology at the University of California, Santa Cruz (Tom Nolan)
- College faculty (Lynn Cooper, Professor Emeritus, and Teiahsha Bankhead, Associate Professor and Graduate Program Director in the Division of Social Work at Sacramento State University)
- Graduate of the Goldman School of Public Policy at the University of California, Berkeley (Becky Lo Dolce, criminal justice policy analyst, currently a Senior Administrative Analyst at San Francisco Adult Probation)
- Doctoral Student in Clinical Psychology at Alliant International University, California School of Professional Psychology (Kathryn Langley)

The Committee has been engaged in discussion and reflection about the challenges of evaluating learning in a prison setting and has supported the revision of course learning outcomes (based on Blooms Taxonomy of Learning) so that they are measureable. The implementation of pre- and post-learning assessment in some core classes has positioned IPP to better understand course-related outcomes and program effectiveness. Committee members also spent time syncing our course learning objectives to the CDCR logic model.

IPP is indebted and forever grateful to our exceptional LAC members for their generous 4-8 hours of service per month for the past two years! We would not be who we are without your continued support!!

Foundation Update

The Yoga Dana Foundation: Every quarter, the Yoga Dana Foundation selects a grantee to feature on their website that they believe exemplifies their mission and objective. This quarter, Insight Prison Project is the featured program! Check out the Yoga Dana Foundation website for more information.

The San Francisco Foundation: Once again The San Francisco Foundation has honored us by supporting our efforts to provide cognitive rehabilitation programs for incarcerated individuals with the California Prison System that positively affect rates of institutional violence, successful and safe reentry into Bay Area communities and individual health and well being.

The Society for Community Work: In 2011-2012, the Society for Community Work added Insight Prison Project to the list of organizations they support in the community who provide services in keeping with their values.

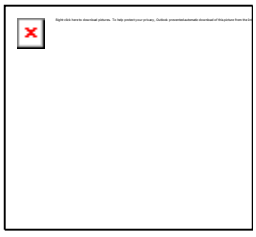
There's something about this time of year, no matter how balmy the days may be, that draws my thoughts to curling up in front of a roaring fire, sleeping late, and the suddenly irresistible attraction of good food.

It's a Good Time to...
Explore the great indoors! If the weather turns winterish, it's nice to know that there's always something to do inside. While Santa Fe in summer looks to outdoor festivals, starting this month the calendar focuses on multiple ways to satisfy the senses.

Spotlight on Giving
Kids are naturally drawn to the hands-on experience of cooking, which does more than give them a practical skill — it equips them to make healthy choices as adults. That's the idea behind an innovative program in Santa Fe public schools.

Friends of La Fonda
La Fonda is the perfect place to find one-of-a-kind Santa Fe treasures, right inside the hotel. Each month we'll look at some special offerings at a few of our shops. Sneak a peek into Photogenesis Gallery and Rocki Gorman!

Live at La Fonda
Everyone loves a band that lets them rock out to old favorites — and Curry, Springer, and Primm play those very tunes. Whether it's oldies from Journey and Tom Petty, something contemporary from John Mayer, or their original songs, this trio of veteran players covers some less common musical ground.



If Walls Could Speak
Their impeccable dining rooms would be among the most talked-about features of hotels on the Santa Fe railway line, thanks to the genius of tourism entrepreneur Fred Harvey. No rowdy roadhouses, Harvey restaurants, like La Fonda's, aimed to compete with the best in Europe.

Subject: Regarding the Occupy Oakland protests

Dear Ms. Quan-

Like so many others, I'm sure, I'm writing to you to express my profound disapproval of the actions of the Oakland Police Department (and other police departments) yesterday and last night at the Occupy Oakland protests and also with your statement regarding those events.

If the desire to maintain "safe or sanitary conditions" in Oakland merits riot police with tear gas and rubber bullets, I can only assume they will soon be deployed in the bathrooms in Mosswood Park, the parking lot at the MacArthur BART station, and many, many other locations around our city. Since I suspect that will not be the case, I find it difficult to believe that riot police were necessary in Ogawa Plaza.

Furthermore, I take grave issue with your statement thanking "the police, fire, public works and other employees who worked over the last week to peacefully close the encampment." Peacefully, Ms. Quan? Peacefully? How can you possibly use that word to describe a deplorable scene such as this one?

http://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/worldnews/northamerica/usa/8851218/Veteran-injured-by-police-at-Occupy-Oakland.html

I'm sure I'm not the only Oakland resident to be deeply ashamed that our city is being associated all over the world with appalling shows of police brutality. Oakland deserves better than that.

Protests are difficult situations requiring tact, diplomacy, and clear communication between the people protesting and law enforcement agencies under extremely tense circumstances. I understand you and the city government and the Oakland Police Department had some hard choices to make, but resorting to tactics better befitting a police state than a free democracy was misguided, counter-productive, and, above all, shameful.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Certainly, the City is going to be sued by some of the people who were arrested, so some of this may come under the exception of potential litigation. Also, one of our possible alternatives for action, of letting the Occupy people set up a camp somewhere other than our Plaza, would involve potential liability to the City. I am copying Barbara Parker on this message so that she will know of my request and start considering the appropriateness of a Closed Session discussion.

Mayor Quan and Ms. Santana -

Thank you very much for sharing information with City staff and the general public regarding activities around Frank H. Ogawa Plaza.

I fully understand the challenges the City faces in maintaining Frank Ogawa Plaza as a true public space that welcomes and is shared by all. I would like to offer some seeds for ideas about how the City could help heal and bring the community together after a rather tense time:

- Restore and build on the larger community's sense of ownership of the Plaza by organizing (or helping facilitate) a volunteer-based group to clean-up and spruce-up the Plaza, and perhaps at a later date, hold a design workshop to think of ideas about how to increase access and activity in the park (temporary art installations, temporary garden beds)
- After some time has passed, to provide a sense of closure and balance the sense of loss felt by those who participated and camped out at the Plaza, perhaps the City could engage their participation by calling for memorial submissions

Thanks again for all your efforts.

Occupy Protests Take Violent Turn

Police in riot gear used tear gas to disperse a crowd of protesters in downtown Oakland on Tuesday.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I am signing because I am appalled by the violation of citizens' right to peacefully protest and the human rights violations committed by the Oakland PD. This is not Egypt, this is not Syria and this is not Libya; American citizens expect and deserve better treatment. Mayor Quan and the Oakland PD should be ashamed and should apologize immediately.

The problem, as I see it, is that City officials are getting their information second hand. I have been to the Occupy Oakland site and it was nothing like the horrible pictures that have been painted of it. There were issues, of course, as there always will be among a group of people, but they were working on them and had made an effort to comply with all of the city directives EXCEPT to leave or to give up their right to Free Speech.

In any case, what I have seen of the police response on video and photographs, it was a complete overreaction. Not only that but it cost hundreds of thousands of dollars, cause complete disruption of the downtown area (rerouting busses, closing down businesses, keeping people from going to work), injured people (I don't consider paint on a uniform an injury although the police claim it is). One person, an ex-Marine who did 2 tours of duty, is in critical condition. The structure put up by a local synagoge was destroyed when the police went through the camp terring up signs, slitting tents and generally causing mayhem and making a mess out of what had been there. All this because the City can't be bothered to work out problems with a peaceful group?

Pleeeeaze! What a waste of our tax dollars and what stain on Oakland's reputation.

I have to agree that the scene in downtown Oakland tuesday was NOT pretty at all and it's too bad that it had to go in that direction. However, I went down to Frank Ogawa Plaza last Sunday to check it out for myself and it was scaaary. There was a man (who I suspect is the one who was reported in the Trib as threatening people with knives, forks, chokeholds) who was yelling at people 2 inches from their faces. He was going around the camp like this berating different people. There were children 2 feet away from him and more children running all around. There were "anarchists" with bandanas over their faces, dogs walking around off leash, people smoking weed....and poetry reading. There was also a group of people trying to have rational discussions about the movement and how they would have to support the ones who would eventually be taking militant action so they could show solidarity....even if they didn't agree.

I have been around the block a few times and don't get tripped out by much of anything, but there was the worst vibe down there. It was really creepy. I support the movement for sure, but there are a lot of Occupiers who don't even know what the movement is and just want some place to hang out and others who want somewhere to cause trouble. I am sure the respectable protesters will say the same. I went by the Occupy SF camp a couple days ago and it was a complete 180 from what is happening in Oakland.

In case anyone has noticed a lack of police presence in your neighborhood lately it's because a lot of our cops were sent downtown to babysit. Not cool.

I'm sorry that so many people who wanted to do the right thing and get their messages across were again sidetracked by the jerks who like to throw paint at our police and cause mayhem under the guise of protesting.

Subject: MishandledAndNowWhat?

Good afternoon, Jean. I am very disturbed at the way you and the interim chief have handled matters since Day One of the OccupyOakland demonstration. You all had opportunities over the last weeks to use peaceful means to obviate the horrendous events of yesterday; you did not take them.

Our City government should have been there on October 10th, the first day we demonstrated. (That's when I saw the first tent stakes being driven into the lawn of the park.) City employees could and should have been present as the demonstration ended that evening and the "occupiers" moved onto the park land. I can only assume they were not there because no one in your office had been thinking about what the City should do when OccupyOakland demonstrators actually occupied something. How dreadfully unfortunate no one thought ahead.

City employees could have engaged those who intended to begin to "camp out." Later, City employees could have helped the good-hearted majority of demonstrators maintain the peace, rule-of-law, and sanitation for the encampment. In the days that you allowed the encampment to continue, you could have been proactive and provided such things as portable toilets and safety/security in front of City Hall or even at another nearby location; you all could have used smart, soft power, but you did not.

In terms of providing real, constructive, make-a-difference leadership, you have been MIA. You dithered, delayed, and equivocated. You sent the police to monitor the occupation instead of City staff. Your actions and inaction helped establish and foster the antagonistic relationship between the City and the demonstrators.

Then only visible leadership I saw from you regarding OccupyOakland was speaking at the OccupyOakland rally at Laney after your violence conference and then marching to Ogawa Plaza with us to rally at the site of the encampment. How can you march and rally in support of OccupyOakland one week, and gas it the next? Instead of acting in such a confusing and inconsistent manner, you could have done all of us a service by not allowing the tents and encampment to remain that first night; but you did allow it—before you didn't allow it!

Tragically, your lack of forethought and subsequent stumbling miscalculations resulted yesterday in your ordering OPD to fall back on its traditional, tried-and-failed tactics of brute force, clumsiness, stupidity, and overkill. Not only did the citizens there not deserve to be treated in such a violent and callous way, but you have now, once again, opened us up as a city to more lawsuits by victims of the brutality. Your lack of foresightful action early on and your disastrous decisions of October 25th have also reinforced the image of our city as a violent and dangerous place with incompetent leadership where ineptness reigns and critical problem solving skills seem to be non-existent.

This is yet another crisis for our city, and you and our other elected city officials are failing us. Where are you—our "strong mayor governance model" mayor? Sending out the police in riot uniforms with stun grenades and tear gas is not leadership; it is a cowardly, hunker-down, strategy unworthy of we citizens who elected you to represent us. Why as a Council member was it a good idea to stand between the Oscar Grant demonstrators and the riot police then but not during the initial raid at Ogawa Plaza yesterday morning or last evening at 14th and Broadway? Where were you?

You and Council need to work together to come up with a sensible, soft-power strategy that provides a way forward without subjecting either our citizens or our police department to more injuries nor depleting precious financial resources that we can ill-afford to be spending on OPD overtime, compensation to all the law-enforcement agencies' forces you have brought in from surrounding areas, and the myriad of city workers involved in cleaning up the mess your police actions precipitated. How about this instead?

1. Meet and negotiate with OccupyOakland for a mutually agreeable, downtown venue and "rules-for-occupying" that will allow citizens to maintain a presence at a mutually-agreeable location in downtown Oakland.

2. Provide OPD protection/oversight to support those citizens who wish to assemble/occupy peaceably, law-abidingly, and healthfully.

3. Make it clear by Council Resolution and City actions that Oakland supports peaceful demonstrations and even occupations with which the elected officials, by majority, agree. (This would marginalize the anarchists and criminals who delight in taking advantage of these situations for their own purposes and discredit those of us who wish to demonstrate peaceably, lawfully, and safely.)

Without these or similar steps being taken THIS WEEK, I will consider you to be a failed leader who is unworthy of any further support.

I also strongly urge all Council members to work with you or take the lead themselves in establishing and maintaining authentic dialogue with OccupyOakland demonstrators. We must now show ourselves, and the entire world that is watching us, that we are a smart and progressive city and not a city that is coming apart at its seams. You must demonstrate immediately that you can learn from the mistakes you have made over these last weeks. You as mayor and we as citizens, we all must be and show ourselves to be a city where reason, fairness, and non-violence rule and guide us forward.

Sincerely,

The homeowner is responsible for maintaining and repairing the sidewalk in front of their home along with the strip in front of the sidewalk. The City built them but homeowners are responsible for maintaining them.

Sidewalk Maintenance:
Maintenance and repair of sidewalks is the property owner's responsibility, except when damage is caused by an official City street tree.

Street Trees <http://www.oaklandpw.com/Page63.aspx>: To verify if you have an official City street tree, contact the Public Works Agency, Tree Services<http://www.oaklandpw.com/Page63.aspx>section at (510) 615-5850.

Sidewalk Repair Permit:
Sidewalk repairs that involve less than 25 square feet do not require a City permit. The property owner should contact the City to schedule a sidewalk inspection prior to commencing work to identify limits of repair and after repair is completed. Sidewalk repairs that involve more than 25 square feet require an Engineering - Curb, Gutter, Sidewalk, Driveway Permit<http://www.oaklandnet.com/government/ceda/revised/build_ser/1buildsr.htm>from the Building

While I served in Iraq in 2008 I would often think to myself " poor civilians of this country , they stand no chance to ever be set free". I thought that I lived in a not perfect but a good democratic country that actually cared about the civilians… I now know that this is completely false. Even after I came back from Iraq and saw the recession I kept faith but as I started to educate myself and started going to college and realized .. .. Something is definitely wrong here… and now you order police to beat civilians I realize this country is no different than the 3rd world countries I will keep marching because I refuse to let people like you decide my future. I refuse to sit and do nothing while you order civilians in your own community to be beaten. "give me liberty or give me death" Partick Henry.

The cop who threw the flash bang grenade at the group of protestors attempting to give aid to an injured protestor (who had been shot in the head with a police projectile) apparently did so with full knowledge of what he was doing. His behavior is aptly characterized as uncivilized. Why is he on the Oakland PD?

I don't think I'll be coming to Oakland anytime soon.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Hayes Morehouse

I have to agree that the scene in downtown Oakland tuesday was NOT pretty at all and it's too bad that it had to go in that direction. However, I went down to Frank Ogawa Plaza last Sunday to check it out for myself and it was scaaary. There was a man (who I suspect is the one who was reported in the Trib as threatening people with knives, forks, chokeholds) who was yelling at people 2 inches from their faces. He was going around the camp like this berating different people. There were children 2 feet away from him and more children running all around. There were "anarchists" with bandanas over their faces, dogs walking around off leash, people smoking weed....and poetry reading. There was also a group of people trying to have rational discussions about the movement and how they would have to support the ones who would eventually be taking militant action so they could show solidarity....even if they didn't agree.

I have been around the block a few times and don't get tripped out by much of anything, but there was the worst vibe down there. It was really creepy. I support the movement for sure, but there are a lot of Occupiers who don't even know what the movement is and just want some place to hang out and others who want somewhere to cause trouble. I am sure the respectable protesters will say the same. I went by the Occupy SF camp a couple days ago and it was a complete 180 from what is happening in Oakland.

In case anyone has noticed a lack of police presence in your neighborhood lately it's because a lot of our cops were sent downtown to babysit. Not cool.

I'm sorry that so many people who wanted to do the right thing and get their messages across were again sidetracked by the jerks who like to throw paint at our police and cause mayhem under the guise of protesting.

Natalie

Hi Mayor Quan,

Thanks to your efforts, a marine who served two tours in Iraq is in critical condition and about to enter surgery due to your "peaceful" orders of eviction that you spent 5 days planning with the Oakland PD. You should resign immediately, so a more "peaceful" mayor can govern in your place.

By the way, the First Amendment guarantees the right to free speech and free assembly in daytime AND nighttime hours. Here's a little bit more about it, so you can get familiar. I'd suggest sharing a copy of it with the Oakland PD as well, so they're clear on how to deal with nonviolent protesters.

By the way, your phone number is all over the internet. I tried calling it, but I see you've already redirected all of them. Hopefully you're starting to get the picture.

Solid,
CG

Dear Mrs. Quan,

I just wanted to drop a line in to let you know how disgusted I am with how you've handled the events occurring in Oakland. You should be humiliated and immensely ashamed of yourself and your team. You've let the country down and may you never forgive yourself for what you have now caused.

Subject: 100 blocks maps and changed National Mentoring Month meeting location for tomorrow

Hello everybody,

Due to the ongoing activities at City Hall, we have changed the location of the National Mentoring Month meeting tomorrow at 4pm to the meeting room in my building: 1904 Franklin St. 3rd floor (corner of 19th street- above Aroma's cafe). There is street meter parking (do not park on Franklin- it's tow away zone in the late afternoon), and there is a public parking garage on 19th street between Franklin and Broadway). We are 1 block from the 19th street Bart station.

I am attaching for you maps that show the 100 blocks that Jean Quan is focusing on, where the vast majority of homicides are occurring. The concept is- these neighborhoods are where the most support needs to be provided, be it helping the community organize itself, provide jobs, social services, police, enhanced youth activities, mentoring, etc. It would be useful to look at these schools and see who has a presence? I gathered some of this information with the survey They are: McClymonds, Lowell and Acorn, Elmhurst, Havenscourt, and Parker. These maps show the schools that are within or right near these neighborhoods, as well as which police beats they are, where there are libraries, liquor stores, churches, public housing and gang territories.

The schools are as follows (although seeing Cole on this list which if I remember correct is closed- this list may need some updating):

1. McClymonds
McClymonds, (Lafayette Elementary and Hoover Elementary are nearby)

2. Lowell and Acorn
West Oakland Middle School
Kipp Bridge College Prep
ML King Jr. Elementary
Preparatory Literacy Academy of Cultural Excellence (place) at Prescott
Cole Middle School (doesn't exist now?)
(nearby are Bunche Academy, Civicorp Corpsmembers Academy)

3. Elmburst
New Highland Academy Rise Community School
Elmhurst Community Prep
Alliance Academy
East Oakland Pride
Webster Academy
Monarch Academy
Education for Change at Cox Elementary Reach Academy near by are:
the Castlemont High school academies and Reems Academy of Technology and Art

4. Havenscourt
Whittier Elementary
Greenleaf Elementary
Coliseum College Prep
Roots International Academy
Lockwood Elementary
Community United Elementary
Futures Elementary
Rudsdale Continuation (nearby)

5. Parker

nearby: Millsmont Academy Secondary and Reems Academy of Technology

Subject: MishandledAndNowWhat?

Good afternoon, Jean. I am very disturbed at the way you and the interim chief have handled matters since Day One of the OccupyOakland demonstration. You all had opportunities over the last weeks to use peaceful means to obviate the horrendous events of yesterday; you did not take them.

Our City government should have been there on October 10th, the first day we demonstrated. (That's when I saw the first tent stakes being driven into the lawn of the park.) City employees could and should have been present as the demonstration ended that evening and the "occupiers" moved onto the park land. I can only assume they were not there because no one in your office had been thinking about what the City should do when OccupyOakland demonstrators actually occupied something. How dreadfully unfortunate no one thought ahead.

City employees could have engaged those who intended to begin to "camp out." Later, City employees could have helped the good-hearted majority of demonstrators maintain the peace, rule-of-law, and sanitation for the encampment. In the days that you allowed the encampment to continue, you could have been proactive and provided such things as portable toilets and safety/security in front of City Hall or even at another nearby location; you all could have used smart, soft power, but you did not.

In terms of providing real, constructive, make-a-difference leadership, you have been MIA. You dithered, delayed, and equivocated. You sent the police to monitor the occupation instead of City staff. Your actions and inaction helped establish and foster the antagonistic relationship between the City and the demonstrators.

Then only visible leadership I saw from you regarding OccupyOakland was speaking at the OccupyOakland rally at Laney after your violence conference and then marching to Ogawa Plaza with us to rally at the site of the encampment. How can you march and rally in support of OccupyOakland one week, and gas it the next? Instead of acting in such a confusing and inconsistent manner, you could have done all of us a service by not allowing the tents and encampment to remain that first night; but you did allow it—before you didn't allow it!

Tragically, your lack of forethought and subsequent stumbling miscalculations resulted yesterday in your ordering OPD to fall back on its traditional, tried-and-failed tactics of brute force, clumsiness, stupidity, and overkill. Not only did the citizens there not deserve to be treated in such a violent and callous way, but you have now, once again, opened us up as a city to more lawsuits by victims of the brutality. Your lack of foresightful action early on and your disastrous decisions of October 25th have also reinforced the image of our city as a violent and dangerous place with incompetent leadership where ineptness reigns and critical problem solving skills seem to be non-existent.

This is yet another crisis for our city, and you and our other elected city officials are failing us. Where are you—our "strong mayor governance model" mayor? Sending out the police in riot uniforms with stun grenades and tear gas is not leadership; it is a cowardly, hunker-down, strategy unworthy of we citizens who elected you to represent us. Why as a Council member was it a good idea to stand between the Oscar Grant demonstrators and the riot police then but not during the initial raid at Ogawa Plaza yesterday morning or last evening at 14th and Broadway? Where were you?

You and Council need to work together to come up with a sensible, soft-power strategy that provides a way forward without subjecting either our citizens or our police department to more injuries nor depleting precious financial resources that we can ill-afford to be spending on OPD overtime, compensation to all the law-enforcement agencies' forces you have brought in from surrounding areas, and the myriad of city workers involved in cleaning up the mess your police actions precipitated. How about this instead?

1. Meet and negotiate with OccupyOakland for a mutually agreeable, downtown venue and "rules-for-occupying" that will allow citizens to maintain a presence at a mutually-agreeable location in downtown Oakland.

2. Provide OPD protection/oversight to support those citizens who wish to assemble/occupy peaceably, law-abidingly, and healthfully.

3. Make it clear by Council Resolution and City actions that Oakland supports peaceful demonstrations and even occupations with which the elected officials, by majority, agree. (This would marginalize the anarchists and criminals who delight in taking advantage of these situations for their own purposes and discredit those of us who wish to demonstrate peaceably, lawfully, and safely.)

Without these or similar steps being taken THIS WEEK, I will consider you to be a failed leader who is unworthy of any further support.

I also strongly urge all Council members to work with you or take the lead themselves in establishing and maintaining authentic dialogue with OccupyOakland demonstrators. We must now show ourselves, and the entire world that is watching us, that we are a smart and progressive city and not a city that is coming apart at its seams. You must demonstrate immediately that you can learn from the mistakes you have made over these last weeks. You as mayor and we as citizens, we all must be and show ourselves to be a city where reason, fairness, and non-violence rule and guide us forward.

Subject: Occupy Oakland evicted--take action now

Having trouble viewing this email? Click here

Dear Jean,

Along with so many of you, we watched with horror yesterday as the Occupy Oakland encampment was destroyed and the residents evicted with flash grenades, tear gas and batons. We watched as Occupiers and allies from all over the world responded with outrage and organized to return last evening, ending in a violent confrontation with the police.

Artist: Melanie Cervantes

One of the most inspiring parts of the Occupy movement is how it engages folks across age, race and class. At Occupy Oakland, there were folks with walkers and wheelchairs, parents with small children, elders and youth, unemployed people and professionals, and people with nowhere else to go. There were Buddhists meditating, artists silk-screening, and homeless people and working folks together envisioning and creating something new.

There has been lots of discussion about race and Occupy. Like all of society there are visible and invisible barriers for people of color to participate, and we are present and working to make our way in. We know that the issues that Occupy is naming are crucial to the survival of our communities, and that it's essential that our voices be heard.

FOLLOW US

We know that protest is an essential tool for those of us with less power to make ourselves heard by those who have more. We gather, we chant, we march, we sing. This is the way we make sure we are heard by those who can grant us what we need--be it funding for schools, marriage equality, affordable housing, or the end of apartheid. They know we are together, we are

When protests become violent (and this violence has been instigated by the police) just about all of the folks we work with and for, the people that we are, have to leave.

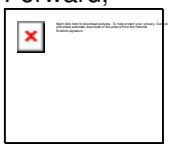
People with disabilities, those who have been incarcerated or have records, parents, children, folks with PTSD, undocumented people, queer and trans folks, and low-wage workers often cannot risk injury or arrest. Cannot afford to find themselves in jail for several days without bail. Cannot breath the tear gas or endure the violence without it extracting an enormous toll.

When the state pulls out the big guns-the tear gas, the bean bags, the flash grenades--they also turn all of us away at the door. This is the impact of state-sanctioned violence: it shuts down our ability to participate, and makes us choose between our rights. It once again tilts the scale toward the 1%, who do not fear police raids on their homes, or tear gas on their way to City Hall.

This is not a critique of those who can risk arrest, or who are able to function in the violent situation the police are creating. We have the utmost respect for the countless Occupiers giving blood, sweat, tears, and time to this movement. You have our deepest appreciations for holding the line.

Today, we are calling attention to the folks that cannot participate in those confrontations, or who chose not to in order to protect themselves or their families from the risk of injury, arrest, deportation, or other violence.

And we join with our allies all over Oakland, the US and the world who are calling on our Mayor Jean Quan to restore peace at Frank Ogawa/Oscar Grant Plaza, to call off the police, and let the process of democracy continue.



Oakland is built on the breath of protest movements. Our proudest heritage comes from the Panthers, the Porters, and the day-to-day struggle that has built Oakland into a diverse and vibrant city. Let's do that heritage proud, and give the plaza back to the people. While the encampment was not a utopia, people continue to work to make it a safe place for all, across race, class, age, ability, gender and sexuality.

We know Mayor Quan may have ordered the eviction in response to accusations that she is soft on crime because she has opposed gang injunctions and supported prevention over policing. Mayor Quan, we know these are often unpopular positions--we hold them too. We know it can be hard to defend yourself against the people who believe that more violence will somehow make our city more peaceful. And we can imagine that upon hearing about the small recall effort against you, you may have felt afraid for your job and your legacy.

in the First Amendment, the right to protest, and that violence is not the answer.

Join us in calling on Mayor Quan to return Frank Ogawa/Oscar Grant Plaza to the people, and letting this government continue--by, for and with the people.

Forward,

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Rubber bullets to the face do not constitute peaceful eviction. The eyes of the world are on you. Is this the image of America and our first amendment rights that YOU want to present to the rest of the world?

Mayor Quan issued a statement commending the police for their "peaceful" eviction of Occupy Oakland, even going so far as to invite occupiers to express their first amendment rights during daytime hours. For Mayor Quan, "peaceful" apparently includes shooting veterans in the face with rubber bullets and putting them in critical condition. Give her a call, and tell her she needs to resign her post so a more "peaceful" mayor can govern.

Dear Mayor Quan

I read about, and saw videos of, the treatment of Occupy Oakland protesters by police - including use of flash grenades and tear gas - and I am appalled. I have been a supporter of Occupy Wall Street, and recognize in this group a legitimate peaceful protest, in accordance with the Constitution and traditions of our nation. It is never a good sign when police use violence on citizens - it undermines the legitimacy of, and public support for, the government.

Mayor Bloomberg has not been a supporter of this movement, but has recognized its legitimacy and public support, and chosen to respect the right of the assembled to peacefully protest. I hope that you will recognize that this movement speaks the voice of the many, and that you will place yourself on the right side of history.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Michelle Gabriel

Hon. Mayor Quan,

As a supporter and participant in the Occupy movement in my hometown, I found the evicting of the protestors in Oakland severely egregious. What was worse than the fact that you kicked them out is how you chose to do it. You allowed riot police with weaponized tear gas, dangerous rubber bullets, and a mandate to do what ever the hell they wanted attack peaceful protestors practicing their First Amendment right to freedom of speech and to petition government for their greivances. Now an Iraq War veteran sits in the hospital severely wounded and hundreds of others have minor injuries. At this point, you need to step down and admit that you reacted poorly.

Shame on you. There is all that can be said about how horribly your police handled this. You are the only city that had to resort to tear gas and that shows more about the culture of the Oakland Police than the protesters.

Bullies in uniform and you must be proud. Shame on OAKLAND Police ... carry on and spin this to make the protesters look like aggressors. Shame and disgusting!

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Ken Mackie

I am so upset by what happened last night. But I remain hopeful because of the incredible spirit of the people of Oakland and hope that you will decide to stand with us in taking care of our beloved community.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. I came to support the protestors that evening and you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack me and my community simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary. My friends and I were standing in peaceful protest.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled me and the other Occupy Oakland protestors. Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Leah Shirokoff

Please read "Fourteen Defining Characteristics of Fascism" by Lawrence Britt. The actions in Oakland by the police are helping us get there.

I was born in and grew up in Oakland and graduated from Castlemont High School. I wish I could still be proud to be from Oakland.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I understand that the camp in downtown Oakland was presenting health concerns, however this is not the way to deal with such challenges. As you yourself said earlier, "Democracy is messy." Please stand with peaceful protest in our city and reject the violent police response to the "occupy" protesters. This isn't the Oakland I love, and it certainly doesn't represent the leadership I expected from you, Mayor Quan.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

The more I hear, the more I wonder if we need to do a city-wide non- violence training with police, citizens, and "Anonymous" protestors....!

There is an art to situation-calming that kids are now learning skills for in schools. We adults sure need it, too!

There are such wonderful stories of non-violent protests around the world. It seems in Oakland this drama must be acted out over and over; when one group becomes inflamed, there is no stopping the tide, and before you know it, there's tear gas.

Frustratingly, shouting for justice often creates the opposite!!!

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Azadeh Zohrabi

The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Occupy Oakland is people. Individual human beings many of whom have suffered during this prolonged recession. The homeless people who joined Occupy Oakland are people too (perhaps you have forgotten) who have fallen through the cracks due to mental health problems the city continues to ignore, 99 weeks or more of unemployment, or whose homes have been taken from them.

Where ever you lay the "blame" for the orders which cause unwarranted attacks on Occupy Oakland which trigger memories of raids on The Jews in Poland, Germany and elsewhere.

Turn your "war on Occupy" troops into Peace Officers and when this issue is over retrain them to be PEACE OFFICERS not attack dogs.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I don't understand why the Oakland PD was allowed to assault demonstrators unreasonably for a whole day and night. Yesterday's news (October 25, 2011) sounded like stories I have read and heard from the 1960s about police beatings and tear gas in the days before nonviolent protest was recognized as a legitimate form of political expression.
This just doesn't make sense. You know perfectly well that extreme police brutality, of the type reported in Oakland yesterday, places its victims on the moral high ground. You have no logical reason to ignore 40-50 years' worth of civilizing political lessons.

Therefore I agree with the calls for you to:

- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I lived in the Bay Area of 20 years. I have been a resident of Berkeley, Alameda and Marin. I always enjoyed Oakland and its community. What has happened under your leadership is a disgrace!

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Your approach only made matters worse. As the Major of Oakland, allowing such brutality by the police is a miscarriage of justice and disgrace to our country.

Therefore I demand that you:

- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

The world is watching! If I have to, I will bring a bus of supporters to Oakland to stop the violence being perpetuated against our own citizens!

Mayor Quan,
The violent attack on the Occupy demonstrators was frightfully aggressive, reminiscent of the atmosphere at Kent State. The First Amendment right to address grievances with our government does not in any way limit the peaceful expression of those grievances. What was ordered and done to the Occupiers was wrong, dishonest at it's core. I will work with as many others as I can to see that you are removed from office.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

cassandra Dallett

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

How are we supposed to get behind the police when they wage such an attack. 5 helicopters, tear gas, and multiple swat teams is a huge waste of resources and a totally disproportionate response to a PEACEFUL protest, one of many across the country, and much smaller and tamer than protests that did not provoke such an extreme and violent force from the police department.

The police violence has only served to further anger the majority of people at the protest and has inspired even MORE to occupy Oakland.
When you respond to free speech with violence, and you take tactics to silence a dissatisfied majority, and use violence against them, you DO NOT see success. It is so sad, but also inspiring, as your attacks on the elderly, bystanders, children and innocent peaceful protesters downtown last night will only inspire more.

You are so wrong for your actions, OPD and Ms. Mayor, however you may not even know that by your violent and inappropriate opposition to one of the biggest social movement of our time, you have furthered the cause of those wanting to "Occupy" more than any of the protests have.

But thanks is not in order. We now know what to expect from you.
People don't seem like they will stop, they just seem like they will be more prepared.

Dear Mayor Quan,

Please forgive the use of this e-mail address but since you do not respond to our e-mails, our petitions, nor are we able to leave you a message since your official voicemail is always full, you leave us no other choice.

What we ALL saw on the internet last night was nothing short of ruthless and horrific. Not what any protestor did, what your police force under your direction did. How can you seriously say that the police were "peaceful" with a straight face? A Marine veteran from Iraq lies in critical condition because of your police force's "Peaceful" tactics.

http://rt.com/usa/news/police-occupy-oakland-olsen-831/

I am joining the protestors tonight and every night possible until you let them occupy the park again. I have my camera in hand and will show the world how 'peaceful' they really are.

This is one of the saddest things I have ever seen as a resident of Oakland. I'm stunned that this level of violence was used against Oakland citizens.

Please look in your heart.This level of force and dehumanization of protesters is unsustainable and weakens everyone's humanity and compassion. Please:

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Cindy Pile

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I live and work in Oakland and love our city, but I was so disheartened by the hard-line tactics taken against activists who provided an inspiring, hopeful alternative to the broken political process at the federal level.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades was completely unnecessary.

Your approach felt contrary to the community-engagement model that your administration has embodied. It felt wrong, particularly here in Oakland.

Therefore I urge you to:

- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attendance at other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.
- Issue an apology to our Oakland residents for the excessive force in our streets.

I sincerely believe that any health and safety concerns, which were ostensibly the basis for the dismantling of Occupy Oakland, can be handled through peaceful discussions--the violent acts of our police will only beget further violence and deepen the breach of trust that has occurred.

Sincerely,

Michelle Rodriguez

Instead of utilizing the unnecessary force of tear gas and rubber bullets, you should of channeled your efforts to protecting the health and safety of our city's citizens as they continue to exercise their First Amendment right to free speech and freedom to ASSEMBLE.

I hope you recognize the unnecessary use of this brute force and direct the Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protesters. I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan:

I am writing to you from Flushing, NY, where I am in a state of outrage over what you allowed to happen to the Occupy Oakland encampment.

Are you so scared of the protesters that you would approve of a military-like strike on unarmed peaceful citizens demonstrating their great yearning for direct democracy and hopeful vision of a creative participatory society?

Violence is not the answer, Mayor Quan. Please look deep into your heart and respond in a valiant way for the wrong action that you selected. Now is the moment to take a loving action for the sake of the people that you represent, for the sake of the larger movement that is unfolding, and for the sake of our world which is in desperate need of change. Now is the time for each of us to step up and become a hero. It starts with an apology. Then join us as we create a world-wide movement of peace. The world is watching, so please act quickly.

In solidarity,

Jennifer Armas

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I live two miles from downtown Oakland and the police response has been totally inappropriate, with helicopters circling over my neighborhood for two days. There have been worse reponses in places like Colorado, but this has been pretty bad.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

James Cunningham

When the government no longer is of the people and for the people then it is past time to get rid of that government. It is beginning to look like that the government no longer is the servant, but the opressor.
How long will we have to live under tyranny before the Revolution will take place. And will the Tree of Liberty need to be watered again with the blood of it's citizens? i am to the point, where I believe that the 1% and the corporations and politicians are in collusion against the people and if this is so, You will not stand! If this continues, then there will be a reckoning that will make the protests in the 60's seem like childs play. I and h;undreds of thousands like me took an oath to uphold and serve the Constitution and Bill of Rights not some corrupt government, be it Republican or Democrat or Independent. For sure it is time that the commons were heard and Fascism was destroyed for good.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Last, I think Oakland has bigger problems. If you were serious about combating crime, you would be arresting drug dealers and prostitutes and anyone who really is contributing to the crime in Oakland. These were peaceful individuals. I think you made a huge mistake by going after people who were protesting, instead of going after real criminals. Seriously, Mayor, how quickly you forgot about your own grass roots activism. I am appalled and am questioning your leadership at this point and judgement. Clean up the streets and the real criminals, not hippies and people who have a real reason to be angry.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

It's not okay for peaceful protests against the horrendous illegal actions of Wall Street to be met with such actions! Government is to be empowered FOR and BY the People - that's us! Finally we're standing up to say that what's been happening is NOT okay with us, we want it to stop, be addressed, and corrections to be made. Government officials should hear this call before they are removed from their posts of power, as others have been removed before them.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Of all the ways to handle this situation, Oakland managed to find the worst possible. Either the police were out of control or they were directed to a course of action that is a disgrace. I am so sorry that this happened just days before we are asked to vote on a parcel tax which is in a sense a vote of confidence in Oakland's leadership. Who ordered this police riot? One almost thinks the Oakland police should be reorganized from scratch. Why do we have out of town cops pounding Oakland and other citizens who had committed few or no acts of violence. What a disaster for our city...I am so disappointed in the leadership we have demonstrated....

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

It is important to be able to protest peacefully.

The Occupy ___ movement is a right that falls under the Constitution's right to peaceful assembly and Free Speech. The public servants that are supposed to be safeguarding us and those rights and privileges should not be harassing people for exercising those rights. The People, of America and all countries around the globe, have no other way of making our voices heard, apparently: Letters and phone calls and petitions don't work. We are trying to get governments to pay attention to our grievances - of which there are many what with Corporate Greed taking over politics on all levels.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

We elected you - and I voted for you - because of your progressive and thoughtful approach to governance. Your willingness to bring force in opposition to a peaceful protest that simply seeks to bring about an Oakland in which all people have access to opportunity is shocking. That Oakland now stands as one of the few cities across this country that has met the Occupy Movement with violent force is shameful. There were and continue to be alternative options to take in addressing the safety and health concerns you have.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Sharon Daughtry

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

As a US Navy vet, I am outraged that Scott Olsen was injured by the police. Remember this: US military are sworn to uphold the US Constitution against all enemies, foreign and domestic. And the right to peaceable assembly is a right affirmed by the Constitution. It seems to me that the Oakland police are now the enemies of the US Constitution.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary. Meanwhile, you did not enter the camp, only sending letters, and when the raid happened you were not even IN the city. You have demonstrated a serious lack of leadership and a hypocritical stance given your roots in community organizing and activism.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you ordered a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. Your administration followed that with a shameful day of near martial law in the area surrounding city hall.

The Occupy encampment was not the cause of the alleged health and safety problems in downtown Oakland. As a 30 year resident who has been robbed at gunpoint in my own front yard and who works practically across the street from City Hall, I know that rats, homelessness and public safety problems exist all year round, and throughout downtown and the flatlands.

The encampment made more visible some of Oakland's pre-existing conditions--but the occupiers were responding to poverty and hunger with food and shelter, albeit basic. The city isn't taking care of its residents. Blaming people who have gathered to express their rights to free speech, freedom of assembly and redress of grievances is abominable. Don't waste our taxpayer funds on useless militarization of public space.

How about some action against the banks who are destroying neighborhoods through foreclosures.

Protect free speech, feed the hungry, house the homeless, tax the speculators, jail the real criminals--the Wall Street bankers.

- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested and release them immediately.
- Protect the free speech rights and freedom of assembly of Occupy participants and the residents of Oakland and the Bay Area in City Hall Plaza and at all other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Forget the lobbying trips to Washington--apologize to Oakland and rein in the police now.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I just saw footage of what happened in downtown Oakland, and I am appalled! I am an Oakland resident, and I saw the camp before you trashed it, though I have not taken part in any demonstrations. What I just saw is enough to have me seriously consider doing so.

What was done was sickening. The lies that were told about the camp and the protesters and the methods that were used against peaceful people are something I'd expect to see in Saddam Hussein's Iraq rather than in the heart of my own city.

We have a constitutional right to peaceful public assembly. What was done was unAmerican and illegal.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. I'm appalled by your government's brutality and the level of control big business has on your government (thus forcing you to use such actions against a peaceful protest!).

Furthermore this petition will be made more and more visible to the public (especially with an election looming.)

Please allow Oakland's citizens to demonstrate in solidarity with protests happening worldwide.

We cannot celebrate the successes of peoples all over the Middle East in speaking out against injustice, and then silence our own people for doing the exact same thing.

As an Oakland resident, I urge you to find a way to allow freedom of speech. Do not stifle it or respond to it with violence. Find a way to let it flourish. It is what makes our country great, and our city great, and our city government great.

thank you, julie

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

I am disgusted at the violence and death this new regime of 'government' is bringing to California. Power to THE PEOPLE! The police our servants and to keep the peace--they've been acting like they have a license to kill and must be stopped NOW. I'm 100% behind Occupy Oakland, San Francisco, and all of our states. I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

Attachments: ATT00001

Dear Mayor Quan

This is an open letter to you, and is being Cc and Bcc to lists across the nation and the world

I am a Vietnam Combat Veteran and a National Board member of Veterans For Peace, our members includes men and women veterans of all eras and duty stations spanning the Spanish Civil War (1936-39), World War II, the Korean, Vietnam, Gulf and current Iraq wars as well as other conflicts and we have some 120 chapters throughout the United States. Our collective experience tells us that most wars have been based on lies, and that they have little to do with our National Security and more to do with Economic and/or Political Hegemony interests of Corporations and the Military Industrial Complex. Too, many of our soldiers and friends have died, been wounded, or mentally scarred defending what they believed were the fundamental truths or propositions that were supposed to serve as the foundations for what is to our Democracy. The right to free speech, and free assembly to air our grievances when those right have been abridged.

Thus, your ordering of the Raid on Occupy Oakland in the middle of the evening under the cover of darkness, smells to high heaven as one of the worse trespasses on those rights since the civil rights and anti-Vietnam War movements of the 60s and 70s. Your actions and the actions of the Oakland Police are not dissimilar to the secret police of the former Soviet Union, the Fascists of German and Italy or the dictators of any number of countries whom we have charged with Human Rights Violations for attacking their peaceful protests such as in Libya, Egypt, Tunisia, Syria. Governments have been overthrown for such actions, and in this case if you continue on this course, you should be recalled from office. Your only atonement would be to apologize and compensate those arrested and those whose tents and personal belongings have been trashed.

This has been an affront to our so-called "Democracy" the whole world has been watching, see links and posts below. You will see, that one of our brave members Scott Olsen was seriously injured with a fractured skull, let us pray that he will recover without any serious complications. Let it be known that Veterans For Peace along with our friends and supporters are very much in support of the Occupy Movements taking place across the country which iis a force that is spreading across the globe. Either you support our Constitution and the Right therein or you are against the very people your are sworn to represent and protect and a traitor to your office. I hope you will recognize your error of judgment and that you apologize and repair the damage, and allow for the return of the occupiers.

Sincerely

I just got off the phone with VFP Chapter 69 member Josh Sheperd, who was at 14th and Broadway in Oakland early this morning and witnessed much of what happened.

Josh said that after receiving several text messages with news of the Oakland PD taking down tents and arresting people, he decided to go to downtown Oakland and "see if, as a VFP member, I could help still the anger...to be between the police and the protesters...it seemed unconscionable to me that the police use the cover of darkness like that to do what they were doing."

He got to the front of the crowd (see photo link, above) and said he "felt a lot of tension in the air."

Shortly thereafter a barrage of "less than lethal" ordnance, tear gas, bean bags and flash-bangs was fired. He and the people he was with took off, regrouped, marched through part of downtown and returned to 14th and Broadway.

There, he went to the front of the crowd immediately, waving the VFP flag. He said the crowd seemed considerably calmer. "It might be just my impression, but there seemed to be a considerable desire for peace and the crowd expressed that."

Next, the Oakland PD issued the "you're going to get arrested if you don't leave" warning. Shortly after that, Josh said, "People in the rear of the crowd threw eggs at the police and that was the OPD's cue to fire another barrage."

In that barrage, VFP and IVAW member, Scott Olsen was struck in the head with some sort of projectile and was severely injured. Josh reports that Scott was admitted to hospital and has a fractured skull. His condition is stable but serious. Here are two videos, one showing Scott, wearing a VFP shirt, being carried away. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cMUgPTCgwcQ&feature=youtu.be
The other has some slow motion footage that shows flash-bangs being thrown by the police, including one into a group of people standing around someone in the street.
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QqNOPZLw03Q&feature=youtu.be It's unclear whether that person is Scott Olsen or not.

IVAW Director, Jose Vasquez, said they are keeping up on the situation, have issued a press release and are contacting national media. They are asking people to call the Oakland Police Dept.

What you can do:

Call the Oakland Police Department 510-777-3333; 510-238-3365; 510-238-3131

Attend a rally at the OPD headquarters later today

Go to the nearest occupation encampment in your vicinity in solidarity

I know that there are always two sides to everything but, please-tear gas? Rubber bullets? This is America, not a third world country or the Arab Spring countries. PLEASE call off the police's assault on peaceful protests. Yes, folks are going to fight back when confronted by an armed militia. So, tone it down, please. Citizens have a Constitutional right to assembly and free speech. Don't take away those rights.

As a tax-paying Oakland citizen I cannot support this in any way. I strongly suggest that you make a formal apology to the people of Oakland, call off the police forces and actually try negotiating with the Occupiers on THEIR terms. You are a servant of the people who put you in office.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

Today I saw a photo of a 2-time Iraq War veteran with a skull fracture resulting from OPD's use of force. This is unacceptable.

The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary. As Mayor, you should have been present to lead non-violent dialogue about this situation and to protect your constituents' rights.
Instead, you were in Washington DC as the police attacked citizens whose cause is supported by 75% of Americans according to a recent poll. Who do you work for?

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I understand the health and sanitation need to clear out the protest site, but the tactics were just over the top.

These police tactics turned what was a proud time for Oakland (which was demonstrating what civilized levels we are capable of even when we might disagree) into a crude, harmful, battle. The events of last night (Tuesday) were just a response to this new behavior of the police.

Shame on our police department! We are all much better then that! A new conversation must start that brings us back to civilized behavior. I urge you to see that this happens.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Subject: Last night in Oakland

Dear MoveOn member,

Last night, Scott Olsen, a Marine who served two tours in Iraq, was struck in the head by a "nonlethal" projectile fired by the Oakland police. The round fractured his skull, leaving him in critical condition.[1]

Olsen had joined with other members of Occupy Oakland to peacefully protest the group's eviction that morning. When a group gathered to help Olsen after he was hit, a police officer threw a flash bang grenade into the group from a few feet away.

Deeply disturbing video of the incident was captured by a local news crew and provides the clearest evidence yet of the lengths that authorities will go to to stop Occupy protesters from voicing uncomfortable truths about our economy.

Yesterday's eviction in the predawn hours[2] and last night's violence against protesters are only the latest attempts to silence the voices of those who are speaking up for the 99%. But members of Occupy Oakland, who faced the most brutal crackdown yet, refuse to be intimidated. They've called for another peaceful gathering tonight to stand up for their First Amendment rights.[3]

To help defend their rights, we're scrambling to put together a rapid response ad to run in Oakland urging Mayor Quan and the police to end their brutal tactics and respect the protesters' rights. We want to make sure everyone in Oakland sees the footage of the crackdown for themselves. Every dollar we raise will go to pay for the ad, and if there's anything left over, we'll donate it to a group doing good work helping our veterans as they come home from war.

We're also supporting a petition by Causa Justa :: Just Cause to Oakland's mayor to stop the police repression of Occupy Oakland.

Click here to sign CJJC's petition to Mayor Quan.

Many MoveOn members experienced the police crackdown firsthand last night. Here's what some of them said:

> The police were intimidating and I have been to many protests in my life, but nothing quite like this. I have never seen such a police presence with such force, especially for a calm crowd. The tear gas was pretty brutal, it is still on my clothes and skin this morning. Anywhere in downtown Oakland had the smell and sting of the gas all night. —Gina W.
> We talked to the police across the barricades about how we were also fighting for them, for their children's shot to education without lifelong debt, for the preservation of their collective bargaining rights. We expressed this solidarity knowing that they might not be listening, but we also know that the reasons for not listening are deeply personal.... —Julie K.
> As a retired military man, I wanted to reiterate what [I heard] the Marine Sgt espousing to the police: There is NO honor in brutalizing your own people. The tear gas stung but I have been exposed to worse, including Agent Orange. What I saw at Ogawa Plaza made me extremely proud of those brave souls that were passionate about their causes. As we say in the Marine Corp and Navy...BRAVO ZULU.—Pete H.

Thanks for all you do.

–Justin, Marika, Anna, Laura, and the rest of the team

P.S. If you want to show your support in person, members of Occupy Oakland are gathering peacefully again at 6 p.m. tonight at 14th and Broadway.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I was at occupy. Yeah they were allowing homeless to stay there too. They were even feeding them.. But wait! That's not so bad. Its illegal to be in a city park camping - -- um, so tear gas and rubber bullets and flash grenades ? Something is very wrong here. But indeed it's a part of the wrong we are protesting. Thus I sign this, as a sign, but this action by the man (or in this case the whoa man) is really not very shocking. That's what the 1% does to shut up the 99%

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

Oct 26, 2011

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

K. Roark

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

If there were people that were breaking the laws of Oakland through their actions, then arrest those people! Don't use that as an excuse for the attack and arrest of innocent, peaceful protestors. The behaviors of the Oakland Police resembled those used by a Third World Dictator. The City of Oakland and the Mayor's Office could have provided Port-a-Potties to create a bridge to the OWS protestors and created a positive image for the rest of the World to see. Instead you chose to be the protectors of those who are already overly privileged in society. SHAME ON YOU!

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

It is not only unconstitutional to violate the right of US citizens to assemble in peaceful protest, but it is also a waste of city funds and our already stretched-too-thin police resources to try to squash a movement that will not go away until a real change is made. I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

All of your are paid by the government, but all of you should've taken an oath to serve the people. Annoying is not a crime. Protesting should not be treated as a crime. These protesters are standing up for YOU and YOUR RIGHTS too, so if you're allowing this to happen to them you are essentially undermining your own rights and freedoms.

If you do nothing else, take violence out of the equation when it comes to these protests. San Diego police did it right. They allowed protesters to protest and when it was necessary that they move, they moved them. There was no WARZONE, canister-throwing aggression. I believe the Oakland police reputation is on the line here and there are too many people with access to social media to let this aggression go undocumented, unspoken about.

Please take violence against the protesters OUT OF THE EQUATION~!
Thank you.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I am not taking a stance on supporting the issues behind the movement or not....but people should be allowed to excercise their right to peacefully gather and voice their opinions. The police have a hard enough job. Making everyone hate/distrust them will not make their job easier or make anybody safer. Intimidation does not equal peace. Escalation to violence does not make them right.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

on a more candid note,
I Must say, I wasn't a big fan to begin with, but I waited to see what you could do and reserved judgement. The problems with your police force leader leaving gave me pause for concern and now the manner in which your council handled people exercising their constitutional right to assemble is draconian.

Consider me in the emerging Recall Quan population in Oakland. I am ashamed of your actions and embarrassed that you did not even recognize your behavior is dead wrong. Good luck in the next election, you are going to need it!

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan

This is an open letter to you, and is being Cc and Bcc to lists across the nation and the world

I am a Vietnam Combat Veteran and a National Board member of Veterans For Peace, our members includes men and women veterans of all eras and duty stations spanning the Spanish Civil War (1936-39), World War II, the Korean, Vietnam, Gulf and current Iraq wars as well as other conflicts and we have some 120 chapters throughout the United States. Our collective experience tells us that most wars have been based on lies, and that they have little to do with our National Security and more to do with Economic and/or Political Hegemony interests of Corporations and the Military Industrial Complex. Too, many of our soldiers and friends have died, been wounded, or mentally scarred defending what they believed were the fundamental truths or propositions that were supposed to serve as the foundations for what is to our Democracy. The right to free speech, and free assembly to air our grievances when those right have been abridged.

Thus, your ordering of the Raid on Occupy Oakland in the middle of the evening under the cover of darkness, smells to high heaven as one of the worse trespasses on those rights since the civil rights and anti-Vietnam War movements of the 60s and 70s. Your actions and the actions of the Oakland Police are not dissimilar to the secret police of the former Soviet Union, the Fascists of German and Italy or the dictators of any number of countries whom we have charged with Human Rights Violations for attacking their peaceful protests such as in Libya, Egypt, Tunisia, Syria. Governments have been overthrown for such actions, and in this case if you continue on this course, you should be recalled from office. Your only atonement would be to apologize and compensate those arrested and those whose tents and personal belongings have been trashed.

This has been an affront to our so-called "Democracy" the whole world has been watching, see links and posts below.
You will see, that one of our brave members Scott Olsen was seriously injured with a fractured skull, let us pray that he will recover without any serious complications. Let it be known that Veterans For Peace along with our friends and supporters are very much in support of the Occupy Movements taking place across the country which iis a force that is spreading across the globe. Either you support our Constitution and the Right therein or you are against the very people your are sworn to represent and protect and a traitor to your office. I hope you will recognize your error of judgment and that you apologize and repair the damage, and allow for the return of the occupiers.

Sincerely

> I just got off the phone with VFP Chapter 69 member Josh Sheperd, who was at 14th and Broadway in Oakland early this morning and witnessed much of what happened.
> Josh said that after receiving several text messages with news of the Oakland PD taking down tents and arresting people, he decided to go to downtown Oakland and "see if, as a VFP member,

I could help still the anger...to be between the police and the protesters...it seemed unconscionable to me that the police use the cover of darkness like that to do what they were doing."

He got to the front of the crowd (see photo link, above) and said he "felt a lot of tension in the air."

Shortly thereafter a barrage of "less than lethal" ordnance, tear gas, bean bags and flash-bangs was fired. He and the people he was with took off, regrouped, marched through part of downtown and returned to 14th and Broadway.

There, he went to the front of the crowd immediately, waving the VFP flag. He said the crowd seemed considerably calmer. "It might be just my impression, but there seemed to be a considerable desire for peace and the crowd expressed that."

Next, the Oakland PD issued the "you're going to get arrested if you don't leave" warning. Shortly after that, Josh said, "People in the rear of the crowd threw eggs at the police and that was the OPD's cue to fire another barrage."

In that barrage, VFP and IVAW member, Scott Olsen was struck in the head with some sort of projectile and was severely injured. Josh reports that Scott was admitted to hospital and has a fractured skull. His condition is stable but serious. Here are two videos, one showing Scott, wearing a VFP shirt, being carried away.
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cMUgPTCgwcQ&feature=youtu.be
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QqNOPZLw03Q&feature=youtu.be It's unclear whether that person is Scott Olsen or not.

IVAW Director, Jose Vasquez, said they are keeping up on the situation, have issued a press release and are contacting national media. They are asking people to call the Oakland Police Dept.

What you can do:

Call the Oakland Police Department 510-777-3333; 510-238-3365; 510-238-3131

Attend a rally at the OPD headquarters later today

Go to the nearest occupation encampment in your vicinity in solidarity

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. The other day, we had a particularly odd visitor at the America SCORES office. His clothes were old-fashioned and smelled musty, his hair was disheveled and his mustache was slightly uneven. He looked like he hadn't seen the sun in a few years- 160 years, in fact. His name was Edgar Allan Poe, and he needs your help!

He left a letter meant to reach our young poet-athletes, in which he requests that the students submit Halloween poems for the America SCORES Halloween Edgar Allan Poetry Contest.

Edgar Allan Poe and some of his spooky friends will visit the October 29th Game Day to perform the winning poem and award awesome prizes to the winners.

It's been three weeks since the unveiling of the America SCORES Book Zone. Thanks to our generous donors, we've been able to open the Book Zone to hundreds of America SCORES poet-athletes. The excitement has been palpable -- some students are spending more time reading than they are playing soccer! Families are reading together field-side and everyone has been able to take books home and bring them back to exchange for new ones.

For more information on the Book Zone, visit our blog.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Subject: Turn this situation around, honor and defend passionate Oakland protestors

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

Oakland is again a negative national news headline today because of the naive (or was it callous?) way the city has handled the eviction of the Occupy Oakland encampment. The passionate engagement of Oakland citizens that shines through this moment should be leveraged and regarded as an asset to the city rather than mishandled in ways that lead to national spectacle and outrage.

You have stated that the Ogawa Plaza encampment was facing problems that resulted in poor sanitation and crime risks which necessitated eviction, but I would beg you to reconsider your approach. Which is ultimately more expensive and humiliating: providing a legitimate protest group with portable toilets and appropriate security coverage at night, or unleashing the kind of damage we saw last night? You may have underestimated the determination of your constituents and their peers. The protestors are likely to return again and again for days, if not weeks.

It is necessary to speak about Police activity in this letter as well.
Police seem to believe they can use their own fear as an excuse to react in violent and disproportionate ways to citizens who are in fact far less powerful and well-protected than themselves. Police should constantly put their own feelings of vulnerability into perspective.
Their actions yesterday affected infants, the elderly, and people with disabilities. The police themselves were fully armed, trained, prepared, and backed up.

Oakland police say they can't speak to the types of measures other agencies used last night (rubber bullets, wooden dowels), but in the future they should make an effort to coordinate with other agencies well enough that they can take responsibility for what happens on (and harms) their own turf. If OPD has time to call the other agencies in and explain to them the reason for needing backup, they should have enough time to outline which violent measures they are willing to stand by when questioned about events afterwards. If OPD is questioned afterwards about measures that may have harmed their own citizens, they should present themselves as if they are taking the situation seriously enough to make a few inquiries and answer questions in a straightforward way.

Yesterday's violent escalations may have been due to poor coordination, but you have every reason to plan and coordinate more carefully from now on and to turn this into something productive. You should lead by honoring and protecting the conviction, energy, and engagement protestors are bringing right now to downtown Oakland.

Sincerely,

Erin Pipkin

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Quan,

I hope you realize the police used excessive force last night and that it was a tragic mistake. You cannot undo what happened, but as mayor, you can apologize to the public for violating the rights of people to protest peacefully, and see that such a reaction does not happen again. I remember Kent State, do you? Do you promote democracy or are you here to abuse power?

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

This was a very bad call on your part. Being in conversation with the protesters is an adult way to handle differences, and there are work groups within the protest movements to problem solve with while still maintaining their rights to peacefully assemble.
I find this action outrageous! The model should have been that of NYC's, advance notice of the problems, time frame goals to accomplish them, and working out mutually respectful solutions to allow freedom of speech while these representatives of the rest of the 99 % of us demonstrate and work out ways to clearly give voice to the unfair systemic status quo which has you and the police force as well deluded and the rest of th 99% definitely powerless. The rest of the "civilized" capitalism-on-steroids world is only going to continue to deteriorate by wrong paradigms unless new ones are proposed and put into action. You are on the side of those who cannot succeed in the short term, let alone the long term.And from the point of view of the nation, and world, you have lost in the short term as well.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

Mayor Jean Quan you are a disgrace! How dare you order the police to attack the very citizens that elected you to protect them. In case you have forgotten, last time I checked, we still live in a democracy where the right of free speech and peaceful protest is SUPPOSED TO BE PROTECTED!

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Because this is the United States of America, with a Constitution and a Bill of Rights that NO ONE should be allowed to abrogate, and when something like this happens, it looks like someone is using scare tactics or bribery oon our public officials, and believes they have the right to act as dictators, shutting up anyone who speaks against what they want. I would be displeased and upset if all that happened was the action taken. The part that really gets me though is how your office called it a peaceful resolution. Peaceful acts do not include Rubber bullets, tear gas, of flash-bang like devices. Peaceful is not being woken up at six in the morning by a box cutter ripping open your tent.

This is a moment of truth. At this point I, along with many others, am very displeased. If this is the direction things are going I will be forced to support your recall. I do not want this. I have serious doubts about some of the groups calling for your recall. You have not lost all of our support yet, but to get it back will require more than words. Actions have been taken, and actions must be made to make it right.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Unfortunately, the "trickle down" theory isn't working--it's all staying with the wealthy, the corporations, and government official who don't want to upset the powerful lobbyists. That means the PEOPLE are losing benefits, jobs, homes, and their right to demonstrate. And for what?

Subject: My City in Ruins

Dear Mayor Quan,

I am writing to you to express my concern and dismay at the recent actions of the Oakland Police Force. I have been a resident of the City of Oakland for almost 10 years and my tax dollars go directly to helping fund and support the essential services the City provides. Recently, it appears that the Oakland Police Department, ultimately at the direction of you, the mayor, has become an overtly hostile and agressive police department. I have experience the Oscar Grant "riots" and the recent Occupy dismantling, second hand. I was not present at these but supported the peoples right to free speach, as protected under the Constituion of the United States. I voted for you as Mayor, and had/have great hopes that you will be able to turn around the image of the city we all live in and have grown to love. The actions of the OPD do not help. There are hundreds of Occupy movements across the country, yet our City is the poster child for excessive police force. Not San Francisco, Washington, New York, etc. Our city. The one in which we live, the one we love. My question to you is why? Why does the OPD consistenly get involved with protestors? I understand protecting property etc., but this situation should have and could have been handled in a completely different manner. How are we supposed to bring new businesses, new jobs, and new economic propserity into this city when people see the police beating it's fellow citizens? Most police who do not even live in the communities which they are supposed to protect? In my opinion the OPD is far too eager to don their riot gear and to implement their knew riot toys against the people of our city. Our neighbors, our children.

My request to you is:

1) Make ti a requirement that offices who serve with the OPD, or at least new office hires, live in the City of Oakland. This would both increase the communities trust in the officers and create a greater since of accountability. I think it is way to easy for officers who live in lodi, sacramento, etc. to don their riot gear and beat the citizens of Oakland when they do not live here.

2) Stop using projectiles in crowd control. They are impersonable and have catastrophic effects when improperly applied. I have heard time and time again about how oficers need to be "properly" trained to use these implements and is the reason for the "misapplication". All of these terms take away the actual effect. Often crippling people for life. Sometimes innocent people who are bystanders experessing their first amendment right. If officers need to get involved, make them use batons and shields. No more projectiles!

3) Start listening to your people. We are afraid, disenfrachised, passionate, and educated. Encourage participation and sharing of ideas. Stop trying to crush the voices of the people.

4) Learn from past mistakes and decrease the level of violence of your police officers. Train them in de-escalation technioques. Be willing to pull back.

I love my city but am ashamed by the publicity which is only spurned on by the over agressive violence of the OPD.

I really hope U.S. Marine Scott Olsen does not die for peacefully protesting. Our Veterans need to be honored for their service. Violence is not the answer. Sure Oakland is a tough town, and there were a few bad people taking advantage, but the protesters as a whole were peaceful and should not of been targeted. The police should of went after the few hooligans not the disabled in wheelchairs, kids, moms and Veterans. Again, violence is not the answer. What happened last night is horrible. This should of been handled differently.

Dear MoveOn member,

Last night, Scott Olsen, a Marine who served two tours in Iraq, was struck in the head by a "nonlethal" projectile fired by the Oakland police. The round fractured his skull, leaving him in critical condition.1

Olsen had joined with other members of Occupy Oakland to peacefully protest the group's eviction that morning. When a group gathered to help Olsen after he was hit, a police officer threw a flash bang grenade into the group from a few feet away.

Deeply disturbing video of the incident was captured by a local news crew and provides the clearest evidence yet of the lengths that authorities will go to to stop Occupy protesters from voicing uncomfortable truths about our economy.

Yesterday's eviction in the predawn hours2 and last night's violence against protesters are only the latest attempts to silence the voices of those who are speaking up for the 99%. But members of Occupy Oakland, who faced the most brutal crackdown yet, refuse to be intimidated. They've called for another peaceful gathering tonight to stand up for their First Amendment rights.3

To help defend their rights, we're scrambling to put together a rapid response ad to run in Oakland urging Mayor Quan and the police to end their brutal tactics and respect the protesters' rights. We want to make sure everyone in Oakland sees the footage of the crackdown for themselves. Every dollar we raise will go to pay for the ad, and if there's anything left over, we'll donate it to a group doing good work helping our veterans as they come home from war.

We're also supporting a petition by Causa Justa :: Just Cause to Oakland's mayor to stop the police repression of Occupy Oakland.

Click here to sign CJJC's petition to Mayor Quan.

Many MoveOn members experienced the police crackdown firsthand last night. Here's what some of them said:

The police were intimidating and I have been to many protests in my life, but nothing quite like this. I have never seen such a police presence with such force, especially for a calm crowd. The tear gas was pretty brutal, it is still on my clothes and skin this morning. Anywhere in downtown Oakland had the smell and sting of the gas all night. —Gina W.

We talked to the police across the barricades about how we were also fighting for them, for their children's shot to education without lifelong debt, for the preservation of their collective bargaining rights. We expressed this solidarity knowing that they might not be listening, but we also know that the reasons for not listening are deeply personal.... —Julie K.

As a retired military man, I wanted to reiterate what [I heard] the Marine Sgt espousing to the police: There is NO honor in brutalizing your own people. The tear gas stung but I have been exposed to worse, including Agent Orange. What I saw at Ogawa Plaza made me extremely proud of those brave souls that were passionate about their causes. As we say in the Marine Corp and Navy...BRAVO ZULU.—Pete H.

Thanks for all you do.

–Justin, Marika, Anna, Laura, and the rest of the team

P.S. If you want to show your support in person, members of Occupy Oakland are gathering peacefully again at 6 p.m. tonight at 14th and Broadway.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Amy Waihili Marsh

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I am a life-long resident of the East Bay, born in Oakland and now living in Berkeley.

I awoke at 3-4AM on the morning of October 25 to hear a live report of the routing of the peaceful, righteous public protest in downtown Oakland. As I understand it, the people staying at Occupy Oakland had good relations with local business owners, included many homeless children and families (many of whom, ironically, had already been living on the streets of downtown Oakland or in cars before the encampment, who then felt safe, were fed and cared for in the community environment, and were able to sleep under cover), and were not a threat to anyone. It is outrageous that in these times after all that has happened to the majority of US citizens, that those who put the difficulties out there for everyone to see and demand be addressed, are treated as enemies of the City of Oakland, routed by military tactics and for what??? We are the 99%!! The people of Occupy (name the city) represent the vast majority of the people of the United States. Who are you trying to protect?

Repression of the people's constitutional right of peaceable assembly for petition for redress of grievances is a major step toward authoritarian rule. Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan,

It's no secret that the police, especially Oakland police, are constantly villified. I would like to believe that in general, the police are well-meaning, and really do intend to protect the people - with the exception of some that really are corrupt. I recently completed a training on how to deal with police in an event that something occurs. I was disappointed at how the police were portrayed, as we were consistently told not to trust the police, do not talk to the police, the police lie... etc. At the same time, the people telling me this have negative experience with the police that has led them to have this attitude - still, I believe that a more constructive relationship with and interaction with one another is much more productive.

However, the way the Oakland Police department has dealt with Occupy is not at all constructive or productive. I am still surprised when the police use force in these situations, because history and experience show us repeatedly that police force only adds fuel to the fire for the movements. While I am disappointed by how the police has acted, and saddened for people who are injured, everyone knows that this is the best publicity the Occupy movement gets in order to reach more people.
I have no doubt that the Oakland's Occupy group will just get stronger.
And so- since we know from history that force does not accomplish what I assume you hope it will - to make the protestors go home, what is the use? By acting the way that protestors expect police to act, you only give police a worse reputation without accomplishing your goal.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,
